Huge Sky Glider Trains Reinforce Allies on Peninsula

Ready Stream of Men, Equipment and Supplies Carried to Invasion Forces Already Smashing Inland From Initial Landings

CONFUSION IS CREATED BEHIND ENEMY LINES

BULLETIN
Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 7—(AP)—The American Ninth Air Force announced 33 hours after the hour that its troop carrier command had completed its first assignment. The sky trains returned to Britain this morning after almost a day and a half of constant movement across the channel. More than 900 air-borne sorties were flown in addition to those by the British.

By WES GALLAGHER
Supreme Advance Command Post, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 7—(AP)—Allied troops have struck inland in heavy fighting, repulsing Nazi counterblows near nine miles from the coast, after clearing the enemy from all their landing beaches and linking up some of the beachheads.

Reports from the Cherbourg peninsula invasion front showed "decided improvement" at midday, and the Allies "making considerable progress on the whole front" despite bad weather and stiffening resistance, a headquarters officer said.

Both sides dropped airborne troops into the flaming beachfront. Allied paratroopers and glider troops pouring down early today in a 50-mile-long reinforcing sky train.

Caen is at the base of the Cherbourg peninsula, and southwest of Havre.

Headquarters said front reports showed improvement by mid-afternoon being "disappointing" early this morning.

SECOND CRISIS DEVELOPING OFFICIALS SAY

Washington Officials From President Down Temper Their Optimism With Cautious Words

NAVAL LOSSES LISTED

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Washington, June 7—(AP)—The crisis of the invasion ended Allied victory today. The second and final crisis has yet to develop.
That is the reason Washington officials from President Roosevelt down are tempering their optimism with cautious words about the first few days.
The president told a press conference late yesterday that western front operations were "up to speed"; that American naval forces up to noon had been ship troopers and a tank landing ship that losses of the airborne force had been one percent of the force involved.
But, he said, he hopes the campaign will not become over-confident. He went on to emphasize his belief that even this first operation was over. You just don't land on beaches and walk in, he said.

Picture of German Reaction Given By AP Correspondent

Larry Allen, Associated Press correspondent, who has just returned from the Grapsholm, spent months as a Hitler prisoner of war. Following is the picture brought back of German reaction to Allied invasion plans.
New York, June 7—(AP)—Nazi many professed to know the moment and place the Allied armies would strike in their invasion of the "fortress of Europe."
So said diminutive, venom-tongued Doctor Paul Joseph Goebbels, Reichminister for propaganda and "president" of the much abused city of Berlin.
Furthermore, he declared, Germany not only was confident of repelling the assault, but was in a position herself to make the offensive.
He made these statements in a recent speech, radiocast on a nation-wide hookup.
Goebbels did not elaborate on the Reich's "offensive" plans, but indicated that England would bear the brunt of German fury.
Goebbels, who has done most of the talking in Germany this year, asserted there could be no doubt but that the Allies would be beaten back when they assaulted the ring of steel that guards the "fortress of Europe."
Germany's two crack commanders in the west, General Field Marshals Erwin Rommel and Gerd Von Rundstedt, professed the same opinion, although Rommel inferentially admitted the Allies, if they paid the cost of an estimated half-million casualties, probably would succeed in smashing through the first stretches of the powerfully fortified "Atlantic Wall."

Map above shows the 75-mile stretch of France's Normandy coast between Le Havre and Cherbourg involved in the first landings in the long awaited Allied invasion of western Europe. Heaviest initial fighting centered around Caen, where Allies quickly pushed ten miles inland.

N. Y. Victory Is Hailed By Republicans

By the Associated Press
Republicans jauntily hailed today a 14,269-to-10,764 victory in a New York City congressional district that has gone Democratic for 25 years.
The victory was scored by Ellsworth B. Buck over Thomas V. Cantwell, Democrat with American Labor Party support, in a special election yesterday to fill the seat of the late Rep. James A. O'Leary, Democrat who carried the district (New York's 11th) by 9,000 votes in 1942.
The Democratic tradition was continued in New York's fourth district, in Brooklyn, where in another special election John J. Rooney, Democrat backed by the American Labor Party, won over Republican William G. Nolan on an unofficial count of 4,860 to 1,850.
In Washington, a group of Republican representatives came forward with a proposal that their vice presidential candidate be Rep. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, who has been a candidate for the top place on the ticket.
Meanwhile, with Roosevelt administration supporters and anti-battling for control, Mississippi Democrats meet today in state convention to pick a 20-vote slate of national delegates and to act on the choice of 12 Democratic electors.

Russia Prepares Mounting Attack

BY EDDY GILMORE
Moscow, June 7—(AP)—Russia is preparing to throw the great weight of the Red army into the growing offensive against Germany, Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, said today.
"A strong, mounting attack of all the armies of the United Nations will be fully developed," Red Star said.
Moscowites got up early this morning to read the freshest invasion bulletins, despite one of the wildest nights of celebration during the war.

Army Plane Falls In York County

Harrisburg, June 7—(AP)—An army plane caught fire and crashed near Newberrytown in York county today and first reports were that six men were killed and one parachuted safely to the ground.
Officers from the Middletown Air Depot rushed to the scene and the public relations officer said a statement would be issued on their return.
Newberrytown is about ten miles from Harrisburg.
The plane crashed in a clearing almost surrounded by a wooded area about a mile from the Wagner home. One of its four motors was burning as the ship approached the area and it burst into flames after the crash.
The man who escaped from the burning plane suffered slight injuries.

Cabaret Tax Cut to 20 Pct. in New Bill

Washington, June 7—(AP)—Legislation boosting the nation's debt limit from $210,000,000 to $260,000,000, and at the same time reducing the cabaret tax from 30 to 20 percent, was approved finally by congress today and sent to the White House.
The measure clears a legal path for the opening June 12 of the $16,000,000,000 Fifth War Loan.
The night club tax was tacked on the debt ceiling bill by the senate, but another senate provision—exempting service men and women from payment of the levy—was erased.

Japs Hammer To Outskirts Of Changsha

By WILLIAM PHIPPS

Japanese troops have hammered to the outskirts of Changsha, vital Hankow-Canton railway city in China's central Hunan province, Chungking reported today.
The Japanese closed the final 22-mile gap to the provincial capital against Chinese resistance as fierce as that being put up by Japanese on Biak island where American invasion troops were edging toward airdromes within bomber range of the Philippines.
In China's Yunnan province, however, Chinese troops knifing along the Salween front drove the

London, June 7—(AP)—A camp for Allied prisoners has been established at Rouen in the invasion area, the Berlin radio said today, adding cryptically: "When the prisoners were transferred there were some incidents with the population."
Washington, June 7—(AP)—America's army fighting its way through western Europe toward the heart of Hitler's homeland won a $49,109,002,795 vote of confidence today from the house appropriations committee. That amount was recommended by the committee to finance the War Department for the year starting July 1.
Washington, June 7—(AP)—A senate-house conference committee compromised today on a six months' extension—until next Dec. 7—of the time in which court martial proceedings might be instituted against Rear Admiral Husband S. Kimmel and Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short as a result of the Pearl Harbor catastrophe.

Folkestone, England, June 7—(AP)—German long-range guns on the French coast some 150 miles above the Allied invasion beachheads fired across the Dover Strait for nearly two hours today.

ALLIES HOLD AIR COMMAND AT BEACHHEAD

Seventy Aircraft Reported Lost in Theatre Since Start of Invasion Report Says

OVER 13,000 SORTIES

By W. W. HERCHER
London, June 7—(AP)—Allied air forces, taking supreme command of the air over invaded France, flew well over 13,000 sorties from dawn yesterday until dawn today in support of assault forces and surged out again this morning in new attacks beyond the beachhead.
Allied airforces have lost 70 aircraft in this theatre since the invasion started, today's announcements showed. Various announcements gave this breakdown:
Seventeen Allied fighters, 12 American C-47 troop carriers, 12 American CG-42 gliders, 13 British heavy bombers, six American Thunderbolt fighters, four American Havocs, two American Lightning fighters, two American medium bombers, one RAF Beaufighter, one American heavy bomber.
Last night more than 1,000 heavy British bombers poured a stream of explosives upon German reinforcements moving toward the fighting front. As they returned U. S. raiders headed out over Dover Strait toward the small portion of France which has been re-occupied.
Sun broke through rain clouds as the formations swung out, led by convoys of American Thunderbolt fighters.
Night crews found the sky moonlit over the battle area, with patches of cloud.
Over France fires flickered and the air was cut by arcs of star shells.
Never before had the world seen such a mighty demonstration of air power.
The measure of the almost incredibly weak opposition from the German air force was reflected in the loss of 13 British heavy bombers, one American heavy bomber and 17 Allied fighters. As resistance in the air began to diminish

Strikes Keep Over 18,000 Workers Idle

By the Associated Press
Work stoppages stemming from labor disputes continued to impede production in more than a half dozen war industries today, keeping idle an estimated 18,800 workers, but there were indications of settlement at one of the major plants.
At the Wright Aeronautical Corporation plant in Lockland, Ohio, where a walkout on Monday by some 12,000 employees halted production of finished airplane engines, a company spokesman said a "large number" of workers reported for work early today. It was not determined immediately whether workers on later shifts would report.
While some controversies were ended yesterday, new ones were reported today, including two in the Los Angeles area affecting 1,450 employees.
DEATH FOLLOWS FIGHT
Pittsburgh, June 7—(AP)—Homicide detectives and military police today intensified a search for a soldier they said was A. W. O. L. from his station following the death this morning of James H. Keesley, 37. Police said Keesley suffered a possible skull fracture and other injuries during a fight with the soldier.

MERCER SLAYINGS AGAIN BEFORE JURY

Mercer, June 7—(AP)—District Attorney Edwin C. Moon said today the Mercer county grand jury hearing evidence in the case of Janice Graham, in connection with the triple slayings at a dairy farm near here last October, will announce its action tomorrow.
"Everett Wilson, owner of the farm where his mother, wife and employee were slain, was the last of 21 witnesses to testify yesterday."
CORPUS CHRISTI HAS SOLEMN PROCESSION
Corpus Christie, June 7—(AP)—Mothers and fathers of 50 servicemen staged a D-Day parade of penance, crawling two blocks on their hands and knees to offer prayers at San Jose church in the Latin-American quarter.
The parade lasted 15 minutes last night as more than 30 worshippers crawled over the rough road into the church. One 80-year-old woman who took part said she had three sons overseas.

SEVEN DIE IN CRASH

Boston, June 7—(AP)—The names of seven men killed when a patrol plane exploded and crashed into Narragansett Bay, off Newport, R. I., yesterday, were made public today by the navy. The identities of two were withheld pending acknowledgement from next of kin that they had been notified.

Relief On the Way Enslaved Are Told

Washington, June 7—(AP)—The Nazi-enslaved people of western Europe were promised by radio today that relief is on the way "even as the tidal waves of armed retribution consigns the tyrants to history's hall of infamy."
Director General Herbert H. Lehman of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration gave the assurance in an address prepared for shortwave broadcast.
Asserting "the world knows that your desire is to become as soon as possible self-sustaining and self-determining," Lehman added that "UNRRA has laid the plans for giving you a lift along the road to a secure and free new life."

Eisenhower's Son Dons Khaki Uniform

West Point, N. Y., June 7—(AP)—Slim, blond John S. D. Eisenhower, son of the AEF supreme commander, put away his dress uniforms today for the khaki of an infantry second lieutenant following his graduation from the U. S. military academy.
Young Eisenhower received his diploma yesterday along with 473 other graduates, all of whom were sent copies of an identical letter by General Eisenhower welcoming them into the regular army.
The general also sent a sealed message to his son which was handed to him after the ceremony by Mrs. Eisenhower.

Girl Killed As Rival School Gangs Battle

New York, June 7—(AP)—A nine-year-old negro girl died today of gunshot wounds received as she watched from the window of her home a running gun and knife battle between two rival gangs of Harlem high school students.
The child, Bernadine George, was struck on the back of the head and her sister, Paulette, 11, was wounded in the arm in the culmination of rivalry between two gangs, calling themselves the "Comanches" and the "Happy Gents", over athletics at the Patrick Henry Junior High school, police said.
Edward Jones, 17, and John Somerall, 16, both negroes, were arrested by Detective Gladwin Knoles of the West 123rd street station on homicide charges. Two other negro boys, 15 and 14, were in custody as juvenile delinquents.
Police said the Douglas brothers admitted firing five shots from a rifle found in a vacant apartment.
Police said that in recent weeks special details of plainclothesmen have rounded up more than 40 boys and obtained knives, guns, bludgeons and other weapons from them.

Date Changed For Encampment

Announcement was made at the regular weekly drill of Company I last evening that the date for the annual Encampment at Indian-ton Gap has been moved up from July 15 to June 30-July 8th inclusive. Six new recruits were received, but it was announced that more men are needed to complete the unit to full quota. After the drill the non-coms sponsored a spaghetti party which was attended by about fifty after which two official training films were shown, which proved enjoyable and instructive. Much interest is being shown in reports that a Third Battalion maneuver may be staged in Warren later in the summer with the Civil Air Patrol participating. Plans for this, however, are still indefinite.

Combined Fleet Plays a Vital Part

By the Associated Press
London, June 7—(AP)—Successful beyond all expectations in the first round of its huge invasion task, a great combined fleet of American and British naval vessels dominated the invasion routes across the English channel today, protecting the masses of men and machines rushed to support yesterday's successful landings.
British Admiral Sir Bertram Ramsay, Allied naval commander-in-chief, declared his forces were 100 per cent successful in the convoy job against an anticipated loss of 10 per cent of the assault forces.
President Roosevelt announced yesterday in Washington that American losses were two destroyers and one LST (landing ship, tanks).
The flags of two United States admirals flew on two United States cruisers in the assault.

Fighters Carry With Them Prayer From Chief Executive

Washington, June 7—(AP)—American fighting men today carried with them into the assault on Europe, a prayer to God for strength, for the ultimate conquest of "apostles of creed and racial arrogances," and for the "freedom of suffering humanity."
President Roosevelt by radio last night led America in the supplication, asking those at home to join with him "in this poignant hour." Disclosing that when he addressed the people on Tuesday night on the fall of Rome he had known of the imminence of invasion, he said that the operation "has come to pass with success, thus far."
Speaking slowly, distinctly and solemnly—it was to him such a solemn occasion that he refused to permit the usual photographs to be taken at the broadcast—he offered a prayer for "us at home—fathers, mothers, children, wives, sisters and brothers of brave men overseas."
"Help us, almighty God," he asked, "to rededicate ourselves in renewed faith in thee in this hour of great sacrifice."
The president, during his broadcast, was closeted with his Secretary Stephen Early, Mrs. Roosevelt, and their daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. John Boettiger and Major Boettiger.
He said many had urged that he call the nation into a single day of special prayer but observed that "because the road is long and the desire is great, I ask that our people devote themselves in a continuance of prayer."

FLEEING NAZIS OFFER LITTLE RESISTANCE

Gen. Alexander's Forces Are But Five Miles Short of the Lake of Bracciano

18,000 ARE PRISONERS

BULLETIN
Allied Headquarters, Naples, June 7—(AP)—The Fifth Army continued its advance rapidly today toward Civita-vecchia on the coast northwest of Rome.
By NOLAN NORGARD
Allied Headquarters, Naples, June 7—(AP)—Fifth Army infantrymen, chasing Nazi Field Marshal Albert Kesselring's fleeing army, have punched their way 10 miles north of Rome to a point only five miles short of the lake of Bracciano, it was announced today.
(The German communique said the Allies "succeeded in achieving a major break" in German lines on the coastal road west of Rome and had "again launched a big attack" with superior infantry and tank forces).
"Another column has driven at least 10 miles northwest of the Italian capital after crossing the Tiber and still is forging steadily ahead behind enemy rear-guard."
Patrols probing west from Rome reached points three to five miles from the sea and nearly a dozen miles north of the Tiber's mouth.
Only spotty resistance was being encountered by the Fifth Army forces but the Eighth Army was engaged in brisk battles with strong German delaying forces in the mountainous sectors east of the capital.
New Zealand troops captured Baisorano, about six miles north of Sora, in their advance up Highway 32 toward Avezzano.
The newest gains were reported after Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, Allied commander-in-chief in Italy, (Turn to Page Nine)

Y's Second Century Dinner Proves Delightful Occasion

It was an appreciative, thoughtful group of men who gathered at the Y. M. C. A. last night to combine observance of the Association's centennial with thoughts and prayers for our invasion forces. Though not as large in numbers as hoped for by the committee, the attendance was 85—those who attended the Y's Second Century Dinner program were well repaid for having done so.

A spirit of friendly fellowship pervaded the meeting, though the events of D-Day had an appropriately quieting effect upon the celebrants of the Y.M.C.A.'s 100th birthday. The closing minutes of the program were devoted to meditation and prayer for the sons and husbands participating in the invasion of Europe, with Rev. H. Barr as leader.

As anticipated, the outstanding feature of the occasion was the address of the Honorable Gustav L. Schramm, judge of the Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, Pittsburgh, whose message was a deeply impressive one. Everyone left the meeting feeling that it had not only been good to have been there, but humbled by a deepened sense of responsibility for the development of character in our growing boys and girls.

Judge Schramm stressed the importance of individual human beings and stated that youngsters are our most important assets. He aroused much serious thinking in his hearers as he outlined, and illustrated, how human conduct is determined by human contacts. He declared that many children have not made "a wise choice" in the selection of their parents, and that for this reason and others it is a fortunate thing that agencies such as the Y. M. C. A. exist.

The kind of things some people say and do concerning juvenile delinquency has led Judge Schramm to feel that there should be an "S. Q. V." movement, as well as "I. Q.," the "S" standing for stupidity. He declared that children are sensitive, delicate personalities and must be dealt with as individuals according to their individual needs. They must have a sense of belonging and feel that somebody really cares. He said, "Whether we really care or not will be shown in the way we live. The more you give of yourselves the more you increase your capacity for further giving. Give not only of your means, but of yourselves to such organizations as the Y.M.C.A., which puts into every day practice the kind of ideals needed," the speaker declared.

LADY IN A WHIRL

By Esther Valck Georgens

Chapter 25
"WELL, I didn't see exactly what happened," the farmer protested, "right at the start. All of a sudden I looked up and there she was, rollin' and bouncin' down the mountain."

"Do you think she could have been pushed and you not have seen the person who did it?" Pete asked.

"Yes, sir, I do. 'Twould have been easy enough to give her a shove and then jump back in them bushes."

"Well," puzzled Pete, "I'm sure I don't know what to do about all this."

"You needn't do anything," Zelda said. "The whole thing's preposterous."

"Huh! I know what to do," proclaimed Cora with determination. "I'm going to call the police."

"You'll do no such thing," Zelda commanded.

"I certainly will," contradicted Cora, and she turned and went in the house.

"Cora!" Zelda spoke sharply but Cora ignored her.

Zelda turned to follow her, but stopped as a long black car came roaring up the hill and swung into the driveway. O'Brien, followed by two strange men, got out. They came across the lawn silently. Mr. Nickols was smiling.

"Hello, Mr. Nickols," he greeted Pete, and "Hello, John," to the farmer.

He did not pause, however, to introduce the strangers, but started up the porch steps. It was only when they stopped suddenly and one of the strange men ripped out an oath, that Pete and the others realized that something extraordinary was in progress.

Pete leaped towards the porch, only to be arrested midway by the count's voice. There was no ignoring his tone.

"Stay where you are—all of you!" he snarled.

COUNT VANDANISI stood with his back to the house wall, with Zelda, whose eyes were enormous with anger, half in front of him. His left arm encircled her waist, and with his right hand he trained a pistol at the motionless group. The others stood for a second as though frozen to the spot.

"Caught flat footed, by gee!" cried O'Brien.

They were all perfectly helpless. Cora was inside telephoning. Sam and Eglantine were in the other end of the house. The men and Rutabaga watched the count slide along the back of the porch with Zelda shrinking at his side.

"Just stand still," he warned them, "and nothing will happen."

He reached the corner and by that time his objective was plain to all of them. He intended to climb the porch railing and drop to the ground where he would be only a foot or two from the car O'Brien had come in. He intended to take Zelda along to drive—in all probability—as a safeguard against them shooting at the car.

They watched him cross the porch between the house and the railing.

"Stand still," he commanded Zelda. "No monkey business."

He loosened his hold on her and succeeded in getting one leg over the rail.

If anyone is going to do anything, Pete thought, now is the time.

Even as the thought flashed through his mind the count went over backwards, accompanied by the deafening noise of his gun. O'Brien, followed by the two strangers, leaped around the porch with guns drawn. Rutabaga scuttled up the steps like a startled rabbit and into the house, colliding with Cora in the doorway.

Zelda staggered slightly and pressed both hands to her shoulder, where a small dark spot had already stained her blouse. Pete was at her side before the echoes of the shot had died away. He was muttering incoherently and Zelda looked at him with wide eyes.

"What's all the rumpus?" Cora demanded.

The scuffle on the ground ceased and, before Cora's startled eyes, O'Brien came into view, followed by the two strange men. The count was handcuffed to the brawnier of the two. Sauntering behind the group came Oh Be Thankful.

"Well, we got him, Miss Pettit," said O'Brien. "Thanks to you—and Oh Be Thankful!"

"Oh!" gasped Cora weakly.

"NOTHING at all. Think nothing of it. Just a mere bagatelle." Oh Be Thankful assured them with an expansive gesture.

"Somebody call a doctor. Zelda's hurt," said Pete in a tight voice.

"Zelda!" exclaimed Cora, jumping up. "Oh, good heavens!"

"Now don't get excited. It isn't serious," Pete assured her. "Just a scratch—but I think it had better be attended to."

"Now, Cora, don't fuss," Zelda remonstrated.

"Well, we'll be getting along with our man," one of the strangers said.

"Okay. I'll take care of things here," O'Brien told him. "I guess you want all his belongings, don't you?"

"You bet."

The motor roared and the count disappeared, a prisoner.

"Pretty good day's work, my lad," exclaimed O'Brien, slapping Oh Be Thankful on the back.

"Why that was nothing," explained the eccentric airily. "I just happened around the corner at the psychological moment, saw with one quick glance what was going on, grabbed him by his britches and yanked him over. Too bad the little lady got hurt, though."

"Huh?" said O'Brien, who had been too busy to see what had been taking place on the porch.

"Well, I'll be—!" He leaped up the steps.

"Did he get you?"

"Only a scratch. O'Brien," Zelda assured him. "Hurts though, and it scared the dickens out of me."

"The house?"

"Now tell me," Zelda requested, "and take my mind off my wounds: What's all the shooting about?"

Patriotic Plea Wins Freedom For Kinzuait

A plea that he be given a chance to "help my boy in the army and to do my part to win the war," won for Charles E. Tuttle, 39, of Kinzuait, Pa., a revocation of a 30-day jail sentence in City Court this morning.

Tuttle pleaded guilty before Acting Judge Rollin A. Fancher to a charge of public intoxication and heard the judge pronounce the jail sentence. With tears in his voice, Tuttle pleaded with the court to give him a chance.

"I have a boy in the army," he declared, "and I want to help him win the war. I am a lathe operator in a local war plant working on government controls. We are short of help and I want to do my part."

The judge changed the sentence to a $25 fine and Tuttle made arrangements to pay the fine $5 a week. Although pleading guilty to the charge, he told the court he had had only two beers and had been arrested during the blackout last night.

Class Party For Seniors Is Real Success

Concluding the annual class party for seniors, which in other years has been in the form of an outing to Midway or some other lake resort, supper was served at the high school building last evening to between 150 and 175 graduates.

After the students had enjoyed a skating party at the armory and movies at Library Theatre, they assembled at the high school at six o'clock to learn that the supper was to be served with the compliments of Delbert W. Lewis and his son, Bob, the latter a member of the class. Afterward some of the students remained for informal dancing.

Next on the schedule is the Senior Week Concert to be given by the Dragon and Junior Bands at Beatty school this evening. The hour is set at 7:30 o'clock and, in case of rain, the musicians will move into the gym for the scheduled program. Senior band and orchestra plus will be awarded by Director Harry A. Summers in connection with the concert.

All seniors are asked to meet at the First Presbyterian church at ten o'clock Thursday morning for commencement rehearsal. Dragons are promised for one o'clock Thursday afternoon, to be distributed in the following high school rooms: Sophomores 109, Juniors 201 and seniors 208.

Commencement exercises will be held in First Presbyterian church at eight o'clock Thursday evening, when senior awards and diplomas will be presented.

Term marks will be given out at one o'clock Friday to pupils of all borough buildings, concluding the 1943-44 school calendar.

Aviation Cadet Recruiter To Be At Armory Thursday Night

In a recent issue of the Warren Times-Mirror, there appeared a full page advertisement of the Army Air Forces, advising that the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve would again accept recruits for the Army Air Forces from young men mentally and physically fit for service, who had attained the age of 17 years and who were not yet 18 years of age.

Civil Air Patrol has again been requested by the Army Air Forces, as an auxiliary of the Army Air Forces, to engage in this recruiting service. On Thursday night, June 8, at 7 o'clock P. M., Captain Steuermagel, of the Aviation Cadet Board, of Erie, will be present at the National Guard Armory, on Hickory street, to interview any young men who are 17 years of age, and who are desirous of enlisting in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve. It is requested that all young men having an interest in becoming members of the Army Air Forces, on attaining the age for induction, should come to the Armory Thursday evening and interview Captain Steuermagel.

The Army Air Forces have further offered an educational program for all young men who are high school graduates, and who have not yet attained the age of seventeen years and nine months. High School graduates under eighteen years of age, who are not more than seventeen years and nine months, may upon enlistment in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve become eligible for Army Special Training in College for a term or terms up to the time when they shall attain the age of 18 years. Young men under the age of 18, who are still in High School, and who enlist in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve will not be called for service upon their 18th birthday until the termination of the semester of High School in which they may find themselves upon their 18th birthday.

This privilege to enlist in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve was closed in April, and only opened again on June 1st. All young men wishing to take advantage of this, should go to the Armory on Thursday night. It is not known how long this privilege will be extended to young men approaching draft age. Preliminary mental tests may be given to young men by officers of Civil Air Patrol by appointment with Lieutenant W. M. Stone, at 705-707 Warren Bank and Trust Company Building, at other times than the dates when Captain Steuermagel regularly visits Warren.

Army Chaplain Resigns First Baptist Charge

Chaplain James A. Davidson, pastor of the First Baptist church on military leave of absence for the past year, has resigned that position, continuing as base chaplain at Bluthenthal Field, Wilmington, N. C.

In his letter to the congregation he states: "The national crisis, in which we now are, as I see it, will not allow us to return to civilian life for another year and a half at least, and it is quite possible that it will be longer. Our great church should be entirely free to throw all of its spiritual forces into a united, God-guided effort without the distracting influence of a pastor on leave, whose return is uncertain, and far-distant at best."

"I wish it were possible," writes Chaplain Davidson, "as we sever our official connections, to express just what we feel after a year's absence from the congregation. We deeply appreciated you while we were in your midst, but to study you at a distance has made it possible for us to evaluate your strength, your excellent leadership, your godly purpose and your unique place in a typical, progressive American city. If our country ever really becomes Christian it will be the result of the fervent work of our church and others like it."

"We feel toward you just what Paul felt when he said to the Philippians: 'I thank God for every remembrance of you.'" being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ."

Because of the possibility that Chaplain Davidson may be ordered overseas, the family's home on Fifth avenue will be kept for immediate occupancy. Mrs. Davidson and their three boys will return to Warren for the duration in the event of his transfer to foreign service.

The letter of resignation, which was written to officials of the church on May 30, has not been brought before the congregation for final action but it is expected that it will be accepted at the next congregational business meeting.

Officer Too Talkative At Party Demoted

Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 7.—(P)—One of America's best known major generals was demoted to lieutenant colonel and sent home for indicating in advance the time of D-Day.

The supreme command allowed this information to be cabled abroad today after holding it up several weeks for security reasons.

The major general was one of the commanders in the American airforce, the announcement said. The conversation was said to have taken place almost two months ago when the invasion was expected almost daily. The general was reported to have said in the presence of several persons: "On my honor the invasion will take place before June 15."

His action was reported to security police by a woman guest and Gen. Eisenhower immediately ordered him reduced to the permanent rank of lieutenant colonel and sent home after an investigation.

His name was not given.

LUDLOW

Ludlow, June 1.—The Luther League held its regular meeting on Thursday evening, the twenty-fifth, at the church parlors with Mrs. Wales Connelly, Joyce Wallin and Louise Nelson as hostesses. The meeting was opened by the president, Miss Edith Larson, who led in Scripture reading and prayer. During the business meeting, it was decided that the League will sponsor a Mid-Summer Festival at the park during the summer. Mrs. Enoch Nelson presented three small children on the program who are piano pupils and Miss Evelyn Norlin presented two young vocal pupils of her class. The following program was given: Piano numbers by Kiester Connelly, Freddie Johnson and Marybelle Carr; song, Junior Choir; vocal numbers, Barbara Sadler, David Anundson and Miss Norlin of Sheffield.

The meeting closed with a hymn after which lunch was served. There were sixty-two in attendance.

The baccalaureate service for the Ludlow senior class of high school was held on Sunday evening at seven-thirty o'clock at the Moriah Lutheran church with the Reverend Wilbert Nyline of the Kane Mission church officiating. The Lutheran choir sang a selection suitable to the occasion.

Memorial Day services were conducted at the Ludlow cemetery with members of the James Huber American Legion Post in charge. Chaplain John G. Johnson opened the service, followed by a selection given by the Ludlow High School Band under the direction of Miss Mary Catherine Maxwell. A "Song of Peace" was given by the Lutheran choir under the direction of Mrs. Emil Nelson. Tribute to the dead was paid by Emil S. Nelson. The speaker for the day was the Reverend Robert E. Olson of Coatesville, who was introduced by L. E. Connelly. His subject contained thoughts of the past and presented three things which must be stressed if peace is to live—Love, Faith, Hope. The band played another number after which "Taps" was played by James Nelson. There were many in attendance from out of town.

Mrs. Correll showed pictures of Camp Birdal Eley which were much appreciated, especially so since there were Ludlow girls in the pictures. Mrs. Correll and Mrs. Koebley gave short talks. Ludlow has progressed in Girl Scouting at a great deal and contains Brownies, Intermediates and Senior Girl

Scouts. Brownie leaders are Mrs. Leroy Johnson and Mrs. G. Johnson; Intermediate leaders are Miss Catherine Mary Bellucci and Miss Thelma Peiper; Senior leaders are Mrs. Walter Cox and Mrs. Melvin McCleary. General chairman is Mrs. L. E. Grand Jury Recommends Office Rental

The Grand Jury at the June Term of Court ended its duties yesterday afternoon after its inspection of the Court House and County Jail and the Schimmelfeng property to the west of the Court House. It had been proposed that the Schimmelfeng property be purchased for office use. The Grand Jury reported that the Court House and Jail were in good shape except for some toilets in the jail which it recommended be replaced. Purchase of the Schimmelfeng property was not recommended but it was proposed that office space be rented until after the emergency.

In conversation with one of the county commissioners it was learned that the purchase of the Schimmelfeng property was proposed in an effort to relieve the crowded conditions at the Court House and to make room for the offices which under recent legislation at Harrisburg must be provided. These will be a chief assessor and a man to handle graves registration which will include the handling of veterans' claims, etc. He also stated that the office of the Prothonotary, County Treasurer and Register and Recorder were also crowded and their vaults were too small.

He further stated that it was proposed to take the offices of the County Superintendent of Schools, Farm Bureau, Vocational offices and graves registrar out of the Court House which would afford ample room which is badly needed.

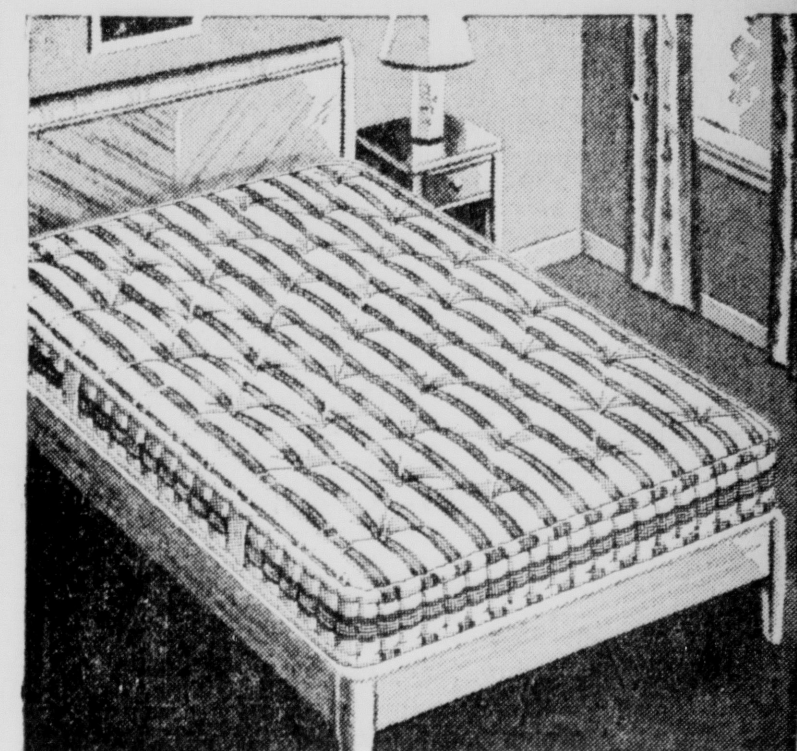

at the close of the meeting.

The Ludlow High auditorium was busy last week as the Junior Class sponsored a hop open to the public on Friday evening with Stacey Carter's music box as the background for rhythm. There (Turn to Page Five)

THIS IS IT!

Yesterday morning American boys, in full battle regalia, crouched behind the gunwales of their landing craft, peered at the dim shores of Hitler's west wall and murmured, "This is it!"

Paratroopers, in their half boots and clutching weapons of destruction, stared at the open door of the transport plane and awaited the signal that would send them floating down behind the fabulous outer ring of Festung Europa. "This is it."

In the channel the men who manned the naval guns that hurled death and destruction into the coastal batteries must have yelled into the din— "This is what we've waited for! This is it!"

Yes, this is it. The invasion for which we have waited two and a half years. This is it! The big show—the fight to the finish. This is the performance for which there has been long hours of grim dress rehearsals.

Make no mistake about it on the Home Front either. This is the War Loan that counts, too. This Fifth War Loan must finance the big attack. This is the War Loan Drive in which we individually must buy more bonds than ever before. This is it!

The previous drives were made to finance the equipment and the training of the army and navy—The Fifth War Loan puts every American by the side of a fighting man on European soil at last.

When the Victory Volunteer calls on you, put yourself beside one of these fighting men. Say to yourself, "This is it! No retreating! Every step forward! This is the big push!"

In your case, every step forward means another bond. How many steps will you take toward victory?

YMCA ANNIVERSARY

Chief event in the local observance of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Young Men's Christian Association movement by twelve men in a London bedroom June 6, 1844, took place last night when the "Second Century Day Dinner" was held in conjunction with 10,000 others being held throughout the world.

In this connection it is interesting to note that the local association was organized November 23, 1886, and incorporated August 10, 1891, with Francis Henry as its first president, and Frank B. Stevenson as the first general secretary. Many recall the old building on the site now occupied by the Masonic hall which was destroyed by fire October 12, 1911. During one week in May, 1912, $77,000 was raised for the present structure which was opened January 2, 1915, without indebtedness. E. I. Beshlin was chairman of the building committee and A. F. Kotteamp general secretary.

TIME TO CELEBRATE

With the Allies scoring initial successes in the greatest military operation in history Warren has an opportunity for a real celebration of the event in the Elk-sponsored Community Flag Day exercises next Wednesday evening.

The committee in charge has quite definite assurances that there will be six band organizations. All veteran's organizations will be represented. It now behooves every patriotic society and all groups engaged in war activities to arrange to turn out for the parade.

The committee extends an invitation to all organizations to participate. Assignments in the parade may be secured by contacting the editorial department of the Times-Mirror or Ben Kinnear at his store. Here's an opportunity for Warren to put over a bang-up D-Day-Day celebration that will go down in history.

Hitler's undoubtedly powerful Atlantic wall, behind which he has strutted and threatened, has been broken at one of its strongest points, according to today's dispatches. The landings which were begun on the Cherbourg peninsula of Normandy in Tuesday's stormy dawn are continued. Commander in Chief Eisenhower's headquarters tell that "satisfactory progress has been made."

It may be several days before a concerted Nazi counter-attack may be attempted with reserves brought up for a full scale assault.

The coast-line is thinly veiled and held by the Germans, Hitler's reservoir of reserves may be far back of the coastal defenses. Doubtless he has it strategically situated for quick movement in any direction.

For the moment, let's temper our enthusiasm with caution.

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

SAN FRANCISCO — What this great state needs is "a guide to the voting laws of California and their effect on the state's politics." I have met several men here capable of writing such a tome. The only difficulty would be that after each election they would have to tear the thing up and start over again.

Since Sen. Hiram Johnson (then governor) in 1912 led a flock of Republicans and a generous sprinkling of Democrats in the parade that followed Teddy Roosevelt's "Bull Moose," California probably has had a greater floating or independent vote than any state in the nation.

The opportunity for this has been enhanced greatly by the peculiar voting laws which permit a man to file for office in both parties, and providing he wins both nominations (he may win his own party's nomination) to run in the general election at all, virtually a step into office in the general election without opposition. Twelve of the state's 23 congressmen and one of its senators now hold their office by virtue of the support of both Democrats and Republicans.

This peculiar situation has a tendency to break down party lines, to make less important what badge a man wears. Election Day it also gives the candidates far greater freedom than they have in other states in going beyond the bounds of their party in the search for voters. Of the voters a greater freedom in making their ballots for the man, rather than for the party wheel horse.

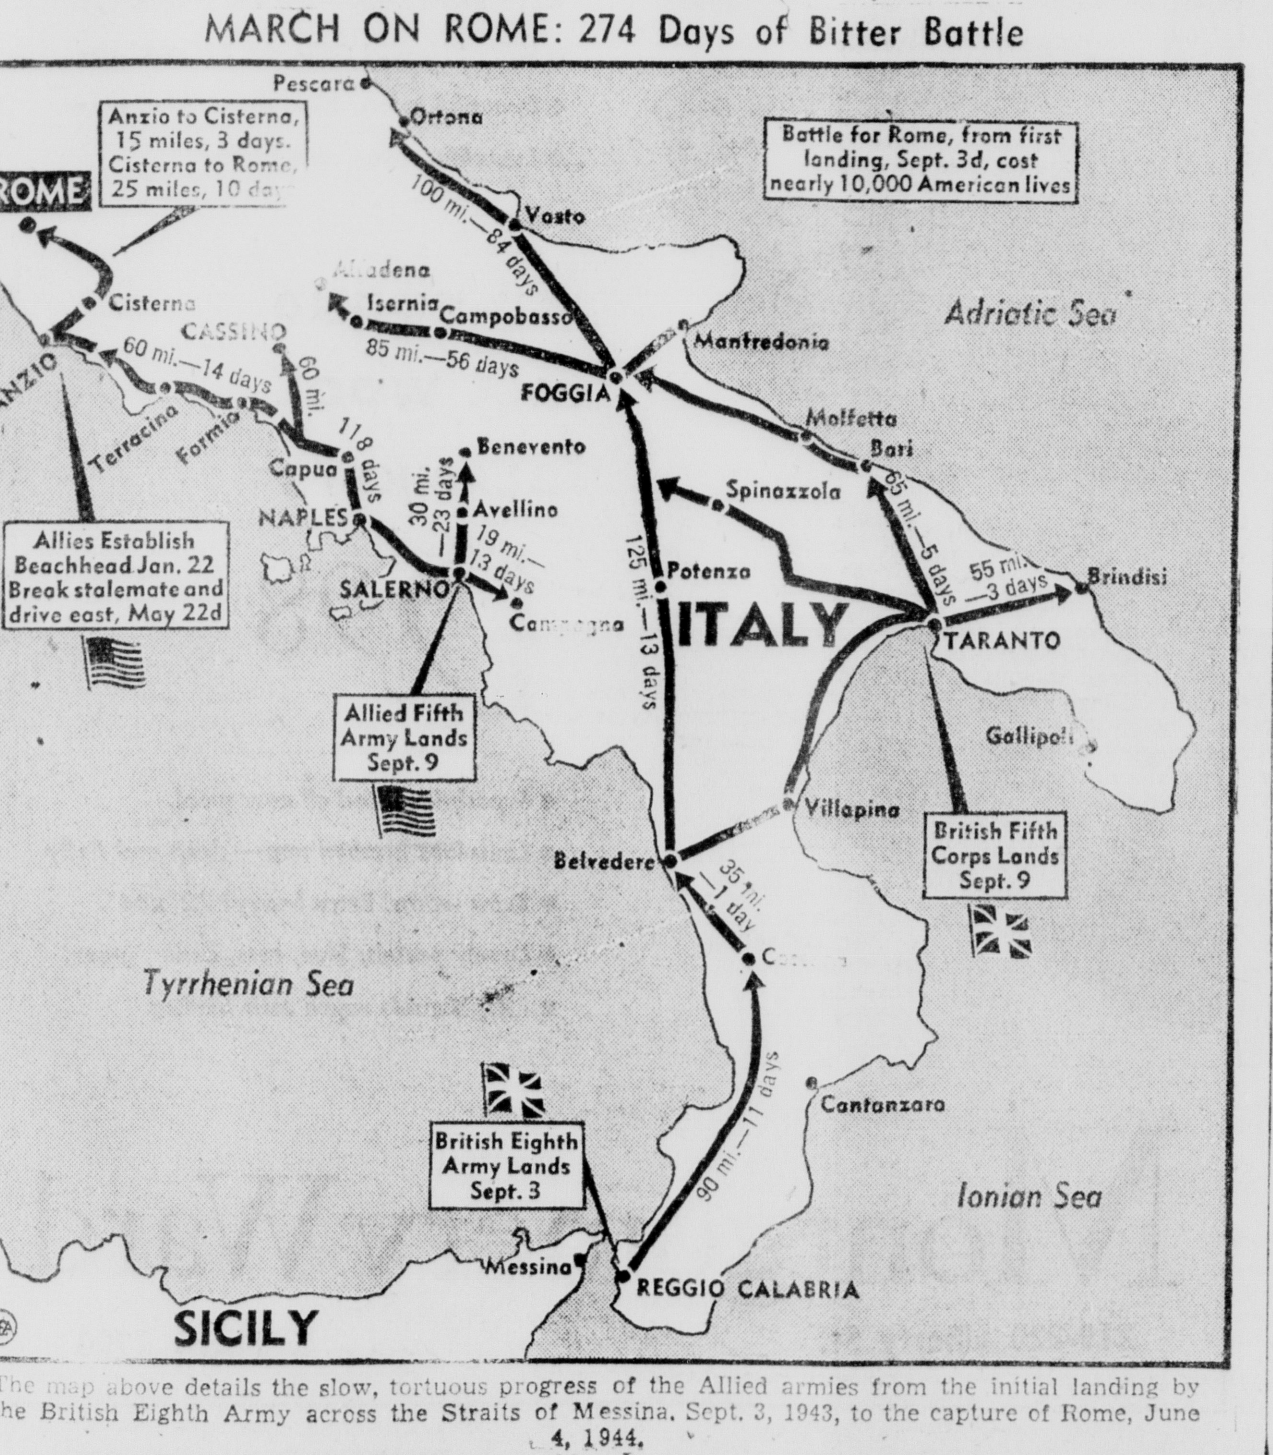

This brings California closer to being a non-partisan state than any other in the union and makes its politics almost incomprehensible.

having any money, they will spend ten days in the county jail.

The circus is here today and the small boys discovered that the NRA has its effect on Circus Day. In years past the small boys carrying water for the elephants was always a feature, but the NRA says that small boys cannot carry water, hence several of them will not get a chance to see the show.

Annual Report TO OUR NEIGHBORS IN WARREN

I Here is the record of Sylvania's operations in 1943. We want you, our neighbors — many of whom contributed to this achievement — to know the story

Our 1943 sales totaled $60,473,821 — an increase of 87 per cent over our previous record year of 1942 and nearly three times as great as our sales in 1941.

We estimate that 85 per cent of this production went directly or indirectly into the war effort. Radio and electron tubes are vital to military communications. Fluorescent and incandescent lighting equipment are indispensable to round-the-clock Victory production.

II Expanding production brought a rise in employees from 10,241 in January 1943 to 15,329 in December 1943—a gain of about 50 per cent. And during the year the number of employees serving in the armed forces doubled, reaching a total of 1,317. This meant that thousands of new employees who had no previous experience had to be recruited and trained for war jobs at Sylvania.

III Pay rolls, which affect the economy of this and other Sylvania plant cities, rose 82 per cent to a total of $23,247,803 in 1943.

YEAR	WAGES & SALARIES	MATERIALS	MANUFACTURING & SELLING EXPENSES	TAXES	DIVIDENDS	DEPRECIATION	REINVEST
1939	37%	28%	19%	5%	5%	3%	3%
1940	35%	34%	18%	5%	4.5%	2%	1.5%
1941	33%	34%	17%	9%	3%	2%	2%
1942	39%	30%	16%	10%	2.5%	1.5%	1%
1943	38%	33%	14%	11%	2%	1%	1%

IV In other words, 38 per cent of our income dollar was paid out in wages and salaries. Chart above shows the disposition of the Sylvania income dollar for the past five years.

V Wartime federal taxes totalled $5,529,700 — 11 per cent of 1943 income and the equivalent of $360 per employee.

An estimated saving of $3,133,000 on our government contracts has been effected through more efficient production in 1943. This voluntary refund to the government, which has been taken into account, is subject to final approval of contract renegotiation authorities.

Under a comprehensive program for planning, Sylvania is making studies of present, reconversion and postwar conditions to chart a course for the future. Forecasts indicate a continued expansion of fluorescent lighting, the early development of television and frequency modulation radio, and other electronic applications after the war. We are giving much importance to the financial position of the company in order that we may take advantage of the opportunities in these fields. Emphasis is also being placed on planning for the distribution of products we propose to manufacture.

Sylvania has made great strides in helping to win the war, and is determined to make this progress permanent in the peace to come.

As Allied invasion force crashed onto French beach-heads, General Eisenhower warned millions of European patriots against premature uprising. Black Light Featured At Williams School Dance Recital

One of the most mystifying features of stage craft that has been used with great effect in recent years will be featured in the recital to be given by the pupils of the Williams School of Dancing June 28 in the Woman's Club. Black light was used first in the Earl Carroll Vanities several years ago and it scored an immense hit. By coating costumes, accessories, etc., on the people on the stage with a highly expensive paint, wonderful effects are secured when the black light is thrown upon them. A veritable transformation takes place and the costumes become a riot of gorgeous color and beauty.

One of the features of the program will be "An Indian Legend—The Wedding of the Winds", and in this hundreds of feathers in the headresses and costumes have been coated with the pigments that come to life under the paint. The stage settings have also been treated and this feature promises to rank with anything professional ever seen in the city.

Mrs. Williams, who is producing the program, states that the costumes and effects used in this portion of the presentation are all owned by the studio and that an expense of over $250 has been involved in this production.

Pirates and White Sox Are Champs In One-Run Games

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

If winning tight, one-run games means a pennant—as the experts say—the second place Pittsburgh Pirates and the fourth place Chicago White Sox today are bound for the big league flags.

As the majors resumed operations after a two-day rest period caused jointly by the scheduled makers and D-Day, a survey of the first quarter of the league races revealed that at 341 games played, roughly one-third, or 118, have been decided by a single score.

Frankie Frisch's Pirates have the best record of pulling those tight ones out of the fire, winning eight of 11 for a .727 percentage, far above the Cincinnati Reds who placed next by taking 10 of 18. Brooklyn and Chicago have won at least as many close ones as they've lost.

Strangely enough the St. Louis Cardinals have grabbed but four of nine close fits, but lead the league in four games, indicating they don't often make it close. The New York Giants have the poorest record, winning but six of 15.

Just as doping the American League race is strictly a job to do with a blindfold and a hat pin, separating the best "clutch" teams calls for a decimal point expert. The standings show only five and a half games between top and bottom.

The White Sox have the edge in one-run games by taking seven of 11, but Detroit with 10 of 16 is close behind. Cleveland has been hard pressed to get an even break in 12 starts. Washington has had the worst luck in the close ones losing 10 of 15.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, June 7.—(AP)—Overseas sports roundup.

Europe.
D-Day interrupted the GI sports program in Britain, but it appears that the boys are putting their training to good use. . . . as we make it, the quarterback called for a "formation quick-opener" against a weak spot in Hitler's Atlantic line, sending Paratroopers through to clean up the secondary. . . . a sandlot grid game compares the German army to a couple of cops trying to keep a crowd of small boys from climbing the fence at a high school game. . . . one or two of the kids may be caught, but while the cops are watching one spot, most of the boys get in at some other place. . . . and just to show what the soldiers think about when there's a lull in the fighting, Corp. Vince Murphy, with the 15th Air Force in Italy, recently wrote: "We are getting the baseball scores every night by short wave. We have a Yankee fan, a White Sox fan and a Red Sox fan in the house so you can imagine the discussions that go on here in an evening."

The Pacific.
T/Sgt. Billy Goodrich of the Marines, former Brooklyn sports scribe, bemoans the fact that the Dodgers don't draw the most applause from the aviation unit to which he is attached in the South Pacific although Billy maintains they're the most respected club.

Ever hear of a basketball season running into June? . . . It does in Iceland, from where Lieut. Dave Zinkoff reports the army court champs of Greenland will have it out with Iceland's champions this month. . . . Boxing still is going strong there, too, and Zink adds that C-1's walked miles to jam the Red Cross hut when the first ring show was staged at Keflavik, Corp. Joe Sarvoide of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and Pvt. Pat Kelly, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., were the outstanding performers. . . . Just to show that Iceland isn't all ice, the softball season is well under way.

PONY LEAGUE

Buffalo, N. Y., June 7.—(AP)—With a lineup as patched as grand-ma's quilt, the PONY League Hornell Pirates made their way to a 6-4 D-Day victory over Batavia. Trenk, a pitcher, was at third base, and Hepler, a reserve catcher, in the outfield. When Jim Drake was injured in the fifth inning, Knight, a pitcher, was sent to rightfield with Hepler moving to left. Magula, an outfielder, was at shortstop.

The Jamestown Falcons, with Lefty Parkhurst on the mound, defeated Bradford, 5-0.

The second-place Erie Sailors pushed Olean deeper in the league cellar by defeating them 5-4. Wells-ville at Lockport postponed.

Williams Favored To Defeat Angott

Philadelphia, June 7.—(AP)—A one-day delay in their scheduled Shibe Park 10-rounder found Ike Williams a 2-1 favorite over Sammy Angott today despite the former lightweight champion's considerably greater ring experience and his probable weight edge of at least four pounds.

Promoter Herman Taylor postponed the bout from last night to tonight "in order to give all the people an opportunity to hear the president's address to the nation" and in compliance with a request by Pennsylvania Governor Edward Martin that D-Day be devoted to work and prayer.

Angott, hard-hitting Washington, Pa., veteran who acknowledged 29 years, weighed 139 3/4 yesterday to 135 for the 20-year-old Trenton, N. J. negro. The fighters were to weigh in again today.

Schools Have Good Record In Bond Buys

The all-out effort of Warren's public schools in Tuesday's D-Day stamp and bond sales brought in a total of $8,490.40, according to reports submitted to the office of Superintendent John G. Rossman. Term totals have mounted to $67,765.52 with a per capita of $267.47 for a student enrollment of 2,667. Warren Boy Aboard Lost Escort Ship

Announcement in these columns last evening, through an Associated Press dispatch from Washington, that the navy has acknowledged loss of the escort carrier Black Island has resulted in many inquiries concerning Robert J. Mathis, 19 year old son of Louis Mathis, 100 Jefferson street, turret runner assigned to the carrier. Mr. Mathis has had no official word from the government concerning his son and believes that he is safe or some such communication would have been received by this time.

Young Mathis, first class petty officer, attended local schools and has been in service a year and seven months. He trained at Newport, R. I., and Memphis, Tenn., and shipped out on the Black Island from Norfolk more than a year ago.

His father has had no direct word from him since a letter came which was written at sea late in March or early in April and received early in May.

Huge Sky Glider Trains Reinforce Allies on Peninsula

Ready Stream of Men, Equipment and Supplies Carried to Invasion Forces Already Smashing Inland From Initial Landings

CONFUSION IS CREATED BEHIND ENEMY LINES

BULLETIN
Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 7—(AP)—The American Ninth Air Force announced 33 hours after the hour that its troop carrier command had completed its first assignment. The sky trains returned to Britain this morning after almost a day and a half of constant movement across the channel. More than 900 air-borne sorties were flown in addition to those by the British.

By WES GALLAGHER
Supreme Advance Command Post, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 7—(AP)—Allied troops have struck inland in France in heavy fighting, repulsing Nazi counterblows near nine miles from the coast, after clearing the enemy from all their landing beaches and linking up some of the beachheads.

Reports from the Cherbourg peninsula invasion front showed "decided improvement" at midday, and the Allies were making "considerable progress on the whole front" despite bad weather and stiffening resistance, a headquarters officer said. Both sides dropped airborne troops into the flaming battlefield. Allied paratroopers and glider troops pouring down early today in a 50-mile-long reinforcing sky train.

Headquarters said front reports showed improvement by midday after being "disappointing" early this morning.

SECOND CRISIS DEVELOPING OFFICIALS SAY

Washington Officials From President Down Temper Their Optimism With Cautious Words

NAVAL LOSSES LISTED

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, June 7—(AP)—The second crisis of the invasion ended Allied victory today. The second and final crisis has yet to develop. That is the reason Washington officials from President down are tempering their optimism with cautious words about the next few days.

The president told a press conference late yesterday that western front operations were "up to speed"; that American naval forces up to noon had been two destroyers and a tank landing ship; that losses of the airborne forces had been one percent of the force involved.

But, he said, he hopes the counter-attack will not become over-confident. He went on to emphasize his belief that even this first operation is over. You just don't land on beaches and walk in, he said. (Turn to Page Nine)

Russia Prepares Mounting Attack

BY EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, June 7—(AP)—Russia is prepared to throw the great weight of the Red army into the growing offensive against Germany. Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, said today.

"A strong, mounting attack of all the armies of the United Nations will be fully developed," Red Star said.

Moscowites got up early this morning to read the freshest invasion bulletins, despite one of the wildest nights of celebration during the war.

Map above shows the 75-mile stretch of France's Normandy coast between Le Havre and Cherbourg involved in the first landings in the long awaited Allied invasion of western Europe. Heaviest initial fighting centered around Caen, where Allies quickly pushed ten miles inland.

N. Y. Victory Is Hailed By Republicans

By the Associated Press

Republicans jauntily hailed today a 14,269-to-10,764 victory in a New York City congressional district that has gone Democratic for 25 years.

The victory was scored by Ellsworth B. Buck over Thomas V. Cantwell, Democrat with American Labor Party support, in a special election yesterday to fill the seat of the late Rep. James A. O'Leary, Democrat who carried the district (New York's 11th) by 9,000 votes in 1942.

The Democratic tradition was continued in New York's fourth district, in Brooklyn, where in another special election John J. Rooney, Democrat backed by the American Labor Party, won over Republican William G. Nolan on an unofficial count of 4,860 to 1,850.

In Washington, a group of Republican representatives came forward with a proposal that their vice presidential candidate be Rep. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, who has been a candidate for the top place on the ticket.

Meanwhile, with Roosevelt administration supporters and anti-battling for control, Mississippi Democrats meet today in state convention to pick a 20-vote slate of national delegates and to act on the choice of 12 Democratic electors.

CLARK LAUDS MEN
Rome, June 7—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark, in a congratulatory message to the American, French and British divisions of the Fifth Army, said today that through capture of Rome "you have again proved you form a great Allied fighting team ready to launch new assaults on new objectives that lie between us and complete victory."

Cabaret Tax Cut to 20 Pct. in New Bill

Washington, June 7—(AP)—Legislation halving the nation's debt limit from $210,000,000,000 to $260,000,000,000, and at the same time reducing the cabaret tax from 30 to 20 percent, was approved finally by congress today and sent to the White House.

The measure clears a legal path for the opening June 12 of the $16,000,000,000 Fifth War Loan.

The night club tax was tacked on the debt ceiling bill by the senate, but another senate provision—exempting service men and women from payment of the levy—was erased.

Japs Hammer To Outskirts Of Changsha

By WILLIAM PHIPPS

Associated Press War Editor
Japanese troops have hammered into the outskirts of Changsha, vital Hankow-Canton railway city in China's central Hunan province, Chungking reported today.

The Japanese closed the final 22-mile gap to the provincial capital against Chinese resistance as fierce as that being put up by Japanese on Black Island where American invasion troops were edging toward airdromes within bomber range of the Philippines.

In China's Yunnan province, however, Chinese troops knifing along the Salween front drove the (Turn to Page Nine)

Strikes Keep Over 18,000 Workers Idle

By the Associated Press

Work stoppages stemming from labor disputes continued to impede production in more than a half dozen war industries today, keeping idle an estimated 18,800 workers, but there were indications of settlement at one of the major plants.

At the Wright Aeronautical Corporation plant in Lockland, Ohio, where a walkout on Monday by some 12,000 employees halted production of finished airplane engines, a company spokesman said a "large number" of workers reported for work early today. It was not determined immediately whether workers on later shifts would report.

While some controversies were ended yesterday, new ones were reported today, including two in the Los Angeles area affecting 1,450 employees.

DEATH FOLLOWS FIGHT

Pittsburgh, June 7—(AP)—Homicide detectives and military police today intensified a search for a soldier they said was A. W. O. L. from his station following the death this morning of James H. Keesley, 37. Police said Keesley suffered a possible skull fracture and other injuries during a fight with the soldier.

ALLIES HOLD AIR COMMAND AT BEACHHEAD

Seventy Aircraft Reported Lost in Theatre Since Start of Invasion Report Says

OVER 13,000 SORTIES

By W. W. HEICHER

London, June 7—(AP)—Allied air forces, taking supreme command of the air over invaded France, flew well over 13,000 sorties from dawn yesterday until dawn today in support of assault forces and surged out again this morning in new attacks beyond the beachhead.

Allied air forces have lost 70 aircraft in this theatre since the invasion started, today's announcements showed. Various announcements gave the breakdown:

Seventeen Allied fighters, 12 American C-47 troop carriers, 12 American CG-42 gliders, 13 British heavy bombers, six American Thunderbolt fighters, four American Havocs, two American Lightning fighters, two American medium bombers, one RAF Beaufighter, one American heavy bomber.

Last night more than 1,000 heavy British bombers poured a stream of explosives upon German reinforcements moving toward the fighting front. As they returned U. S. raiders headed out over Dover Strait toward the small portion of France which has been re-captured.

Sun broke through rain clouds as the formations swung out, led by convoys of American Thunderbolt fighters.

Night crews found the sky moonlit over the battle area, with patches of cloud.

Over France fires flickered and the air was cut by arcs of star shells.

Never before had the world seen such a mighty demonstration of air power.

The measure of the almost incredibly weak opposition from the German air force was reflected in the loss of 13 British heavy bombers, one American heavy bomber and 17 Allied fighters. As resistance in the air began to wane, (Turn to Page Nine)

Eisenhower's Son Dons Khaki Uniform

West Point, N. Y., June 7—(AP)—Slim, blond John S. D. Eisenhower, son of the AEF supreme commander, put away his dress uniforms today for the khaki of an infantry second lieutenant following his graduation from the U. S. military academy.

Young Eisenhower received his diploma yesterday along with 473 other graduates, all of whom were sent copies of an identical letter by General Eisenhower welcoming them into the regular army.

The general also sent a sealed message to his son which was handed to him after the ceremony by Mrs. Eisenhower.

FLEEING NAZIS OFFER LITTLE RESISTANCE

Gen. Alexander's Forces Are But Five Miles Short of the Lake of Bracciano

18,000 ARE PRISONERS

BULLETIN

Allied Headquarters, Naples, June 7—(AP)—The Fifth Army continued its advance rapidly today toward Civitavecchia on the coast northwest of Rome.

By NOLAN NORGARD

Allied Headquarters, Naples, June 7—(AP)—Fifth Army infantrymen, chasing Nazi Field Marshal Albert Kesselring's fleeing army, have punched their way 10 miles north of Rome to a point only five miles short of the lake of Bracciano, it was announced today.

(The German communique said the Allies "succeeded in achieving a major break" in German lines on the coastal road west of Rome and had "again launched a big attack" with superior infantry and tank forces.)

Another column has driven at least 10 miles northwest of the Italian capital after crossing the Tiber and still is forging steadily ahead behind enemy rear-guard.

Patrols probing west from Rome reached points three to five miles from the sea and nearly a dozen miles north of the Tiber's mouth.

Only spotty resistance was being encountered by the Fifth Army forces but the Eighth Army was engaged in brisk battles with strong German delaying forces in the mountainous sectors east of the capital.

New Zealand troops captured Baisano, about six miles north of Sorra, in their advance up Highway 32 toward Avezzano.

The newest gains were reported after Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, Allied commander-in-chief in Italy, (Turn to Page Nine)

Girl Killed As Rival School Gangs Battle

New York, June 7—(AP)—A nine-year-old negro girl died today of gunshot wounds received as she watched from the window of her home a running gun and knife battle between two rival gangs of Harlem high school students.

The child, Bernadine George, was struck on the back of the head and her sister, Paulette, 11, was wounded in the arm in the culmination of rivalry between two gangs, calling themselves the "Conanches" and the "Happy Gents", over athletics at the Patrick Henry Junior High school, police said.

Edward Jones, 17, and John Somersall, 16, both negroes, were arrested by Detective Gladwill Knoles of the West 123rd street station on homicide charges. Two other negro boys, 15 and 14, were in custody as juvenile delinquents. Police said the Douglas brothers admitted firing five shots from a rifle found in a vacant apartment.

Police said that in recent weeks special details of plainclothesmen have rounded up more than 40 boys and obtained knives, guns, bludgeons and other weapons from them.

Date Changed For Encampment

Announcement was made at the regular weekly drill of Company I last evening that the date for the annual Encampment at Indian-Town Gap has been moved up from July 15 to June 30-July 8th inclusive. Six new recruits were received, but it was announced that more men are needed to complete the unit to full quota. After the drill the non-coms sponsored a spaghetti party which was attended by about fifty after which two official training films were shown, which proved enjoyable and instructive. Much interest is being shown in reports that a Third Battalion maneuver may be staged in Warren later in the summer with the Civil Air Patrol participating. Plans for this, however, are still indefinite.

MERCER SLAYINGS AGAIN BEFORE JURY

Mercer, June 7—(AP)—District Attorney Edwin C. Moon said today the Mercer county grand jury hearing evidence in the case of Janice Graham, in connection with the triple slayings at a dairy farm near here last October, will announce its action tomorrow.

"Everett Wilson, owner of the farm where his mother, wife and employee were slain, was the last of 21 witnesses to testify yesterday.

CORPUS CHRISTI HAS SOLEMN PROCESSION

Corpus Christi, June 7—(AP)—Mothers and fathers of 50 servicemen staged a D-Day parade of penance, crawling two blocks on their hands and knees to offer prayers at San Jose church in the Latin-American quarter.

The parade lasted 15 minutes last night as more than 30 worshippers crawled over the rough road into the church. One 80-year-old woman who took part said she had three sons overseas.

SEVEN DIE IN CRASH

Boston, June 7—(AP)—The names of seven men killed when a patrol plane exploded and crashed into Narragansett Bay, off Newport, R. I., yesterday, were made public today by the navy. The identities of two were withheld pending acknowledgement from next of kin that they had been notified.

Fighters Carry With Them Prayer From Chief Executive

Washington, June 7—(AP)—American fighting men today carried with them into the assault on Europe, a prayer to God for strength, for the ultimate conquest of "apostles of creed and racial arrogancies" and for the "freedom of suffering humanity."

President Roosevelt by radio last night led America in the supplication, asking those at home to join with him "in this poignant hour." Disclosing that when he addressed the people on Tuesday night on the fall of Rome he had known of the imminence of invasion, he said that the operation "has come to pass with success, thus far."

Speaking slowly, distinctly and solemnly—it was to him such a solemn occasion that he refused to permit the usual photographs to be taken at the broadcast—he offered a prayer for "us at home—fathers, mothers, children, wives, sisters and brothers of brave men overseas."

"Help us, almighty God," he asked, "to rededicate ourselves in renewed faith in thee in this hour of great sacrifice."

The president, during his broadcast prayer, was closeted with his Secretary Stephen Early, Mrs. Roosevelt, and their daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. John Boettiger and Major Boettiger.

He said many had urged that he call the nation to a single day of special prayer, but observed that "because the road is long and the desire is great, I ask that our people devote themselves in a continuance of prayer."

Picture of German Reaction Given By AP Correspondent

Larry Allen, Associated Press correspondent, who has just returned from Berlin, spent months as a Hitler prisoner of war. Following is the picture brought back of German reaction to Allied invasion plans.

New York, June 7—(AP)—Nazi Germany professes to know the exact moment and place the Allied armies would strike in their assault on the "fortress of Europe."

So said diminutive, venom-tongued Doctor Paul Joseph Goebbels, Reichminister for propaganda and "president" of the much abused city of Berlin.

Furthermore, he declared, Germany not only was confident of repelling the assault, but was in a position herself to make the offensive.

He made these statements in a recent speech, broadcast on a nation-wide hookup.

Goebbels did not elaborate on the Reich's "offensive" plans, but indicated that England would bear the brunt of German fury.

Goebbels, who has done most of the talking in Germany this year, asserted there could be no doubt but that the Allies would be beaten back when they assaulted the ring of steel that guards the "fortress of Europe."

Germany's two crack commanders in the west, General Field Marshals Erwin Rommel and Gerd Von Rundstedt, professed the same opinion, although Rommel inferentially admitted the Allies, if they paid the cost of an estimated half-million casualties, probably would succeed in smashing through the first stretches of the powerfully fortified "Atlantic Wall."

Army Plane Falls In York County

Harrisburg, June 7—(AP)—An army plane caught fire and crashed near Newberrytown in York county today and first reports were that six men were killed and one parachuted safely to the ground.

Officers from the Middletown Air Depot rushed to the scene and the public relations officer said a statement would be issued on their return.

Newberrytown is about ten miles from Harrisburg.

The plane crashed in a clearing almost surrounded by a wooded area about a mile from the Wagner home. One of its four motors was burning as the ship approached the area and it burst into flames after the crash.

The man who escaped from the burning plane suffered slight injuries.

Associated Press Bulletins

London, June 7—(AP)—A camp for Allied prisoners has been established at Rouen in the invasion area, the Berlin radio said today, adding cryptically: "When the prisoners were transferred there were some incidents with the population."

Washington, June 7—(AP)—America's army fighting its way through western Europe toward the heart of Hitler's homeland won a $49,109,027.95 vote of confidence today from the house appropriations committee. That amount was recommended by the committee to finance the War Department for the year starting July 1.

Washington, June 7—(AP)—A senate-house conference committee compromised today on a six months' extension—until next Dec. 7—of the time in which court martial proceedings might be instituted against Rear Admiral Husband S. Kimmel and Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short as a result of the Pearl Harbor catastrophe.

Butler, June 7—(AP)—Veterans themselves, more than 500 patients at Deshon General Hospital crowded into an auditorium yesterday and prayed for the Allied soldiers spear-heading the invasion of Hitler's Europe.

Harrisburg, June 7—(AP)—Following reports of ground glass found in bottles of imported Spanish brandy, Liquor Board Chairman Frederick T. Gelder reported today that two such brands have been removed from state stores.

Folkestone, England, June 7—(AP)—German long-range guns on the French coast sent 150 miles above the Allied invasion beachheads fired across the Dover Strait for nearly two hours today.

Y's Second Century Dinner Proves Delightful Occasion

It was an appreciative, thoughtful group of men who gathered at the Y. M. C. A. last night to combine observance of the Association's centennial with thoughts and prayers for our invasion forces. Though not as large in numbers as hoped for by the committee—the attendance was 85—those who attended the Y's Second Century Dinner program were well repaid for having done so.

A spirit of friendly fellowship pervaded the meeting, though the events of D-Day had an appropriately quiet effect upon the celebrants of the Y.M.C.A.'s 100th birthday. The closing minutes of the program were devoted to meditation and prayer for the sons and husbands participating in the invasion of Europe, with Rev. H. H. Barr as leader.

As anticipated, the outstanding feature of the occasion was the address of the Honorable Gustav L. Schramm, judge of the Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, Pittsburgh, whose message was a deeply impressive one. Everyone left the meeting feeling that it had not only been good to have been there, but humbled by a deepened sense of responsibility for the development of character in our growing boys and girls.

Judge Schramm stressed the importance of individual human beings, and stated that youngsters are our most important assets. He aroused much serious thinking in his hearers as he outlined, and illustrated, how human conduct is determined by human contacts. He declared that many children have not made "a wise choice" in the selection of their parents, and that for this reason and others it is a fortunate thing that agencies such as the Y. M. C. A. exist.

The kind of things some people say and do concerning juvenile delinquency has led Judge Schramm to feel that there should be an "S.Q." measurement, as well as "I.Q.", the "S" standing for stupidity. He declared that children are sensitive, delicate personalities and must be dealt with as individuals according to their individual needs. They must have a sense of belonging and feel that somebody really cares. He said, "Whether we really care or not will be shown in the way we live. The more you give of your selves the more you increase your capacity for further giving. Give not only of your means, but of yourselves to such organizations as the Y.M.C.A., which puts into every day practice the kind of ideals needed," the speaker declared.

LADY IN A WHIRL

Chapter 25
"WELL, I didn't see exactly what happened," the farmer protested, "right at the start. All of a sudden I looked up and there she was, rollin' and bouncin' down the mountain."

"Do you think she could have been pushed and you not have seen the person who did it?" Pete asked.

"Yes, sir, I do. 'Twould have been easy enough to give her a shove and then jump back in them bushes."

"Well," puzzled Pete, "I'm sure I don't know what to do about all this."

"You needn't do anything," Zelda said. "The whole thing's preposterous."

"Huh! I know what to do," proclaimed Cora with determination. "I'm going to call the police."

"You'll do no such thing," Zelda commanded.

"I certainly will," contradicted Cora, and she turned and went in the house.

"Cora!" Zelda spoke sharply but Cora ignored her.

Zelda turned to follow her, but stopped as a long, black car came roaring up the hill and swung into the driveway. O'Brien, followed by two strange men, got out. They came across the lawn silently, but O'Brien was smiling.

"Hello, Mr. Nickols," he greeted Pete, and "Hello, John," to the farmer.

He did not pause, however, to introduce the strangers, but started up the porch steps. It was only when they stopped suddenly and one of the strange men ripped out an oath that Pete and the others realized that something extraordinary was in progress.

Pete leaped towards the porch, only to be arrested midway by the count's voice. There was no ignoring his tone.

"Stay where you are—all of you!" he snarled.

COUNT VARIANISI stood with his back to the house wall, with Zelda, whose eyes were enormous with anger, half in front of him. His left arm encircled her waist, and with his right hand he trained a pistol at the motionless group. The others stood for a second as though frozen to the spot.

"Caught flat footed, by gee!" cried O'Brien.

They were all perfectly helpless. Cora was inside telephoning. Sam and Eglantine were in the other end of the house. The men and Rutabaga watched the count slide along the back of the porch with Zelda shrinking at his side.

"Just stand still," he warned them, "and nothing will happen."

He reached the corner and by that time his objective was plain to all of them. He intended to climb the porch railing and drop to the ground where he would spray a foot or two from the car O'Brien had come in. He intended to take Zelda along to drive—in all probability—and as a safeguard against them shooting at the car.

They watched him cross the porch between the house and the railing.

"Stand still," he commanded Zelda. "No more business."

He loosened his hold on her and succeeded in getting one leg over the rail.

If anyone is going to do anything, Pete thought, now is the time.

Even as the thought flashed through his mind the count went over backwards, accompanied by the deafening noise of his gun.

O'Brien, followed by the two strangers, leaped around the porch with guns drawn. Rutabaga scuttled up the steps like a startled rabbit and into the house, colliding with Cora in the doorway.

Zelda staggered slightly and pressed both hands to her shoulder where a small, dark spot had already stained her blouse. Pete was at her side before the echoes of the shot had died away. He was muttering incoherently and Zelda looked at him with wide eyes.

"What's all the rumpus?" Cora demanded.

The scuffle on the ground ceased and, before Cora's startled eyes, O'Brien came into view, followed by the two strange men. The count was handcuffed to the brawniest of the two. Sauntering behind the group came Oh Be Thankful.

"Well, we got him, Miss Pettit," said O'Brien. "Thanks to you—and Oh Be Thankful!"

"Oh!" gasped Cora weakly.

"NOTHING at all. Think nothing of it. Just a mere bagatelle," Oh Be Thankful assured them with an expansive gesture.

"Somebody call a doctor, Zelda's hurt," said Pete in a tight voice.

"Zelda!" exclaimed Cora, jumping up. "Oh, good heavens!"

"Now don't get excited. It isn't serious," Pete assured her. "Just a scratch—but I think it had better be attended to."

"Now, Cora, don't fuss," Zelda remonstrated.

"Well, we'll be getting along with our man," one of the strangers said.

"Okay, I'll take care of things here," O'Brien told him. "I guess you want all his belongings, don't you?"

"You bet."

The motor roared and the count disappeared, a prisoner.

"Pretty good day's work, my lad," exclaimed O'Brien, slapping Oh Be Thankful on the back.

"Why that was nothing," explained the eccentric airily. "I just happened around the corner at the psychological moment, saw with one quick glance what was going on, grabbed him by his britches and yanked him over. Too bad the little lady got hurt."

"Huh?" said O'Brien, who had been too busy to see what had been taking place on the porch.

"Well, I'll be—!" He leaped up the steps.

"Did he get you?"

"Only a scratch, O'Brien," Zelda assured him. "Hurts though, and it scared the dickens out of me."

"The house!"

"Now tell me," Zelda requested, "and take my mind off my wounds: What's all the shooting about?"

Class Party For Seniors Is Real Success

Concluding the annual class party for seniors, which in other years has been in the form of an outing to Midway or some other lake resort, supper was served at the high school building last evening to between 150 and 175 graduates.

After the students had enjoyed a skating party at the armory and movies at Library Theatre, they assembled at the high school at six o'clock, to learn that the supper was to be served with the compliments of Delbert W. Lewis and his son, Bob, the latter a member of the class. Afterward some of the students remained for informal dancing.

Next on the schedule is the Senior Week Concert to be given by the Dragon and Junior Bands at Beaty school this evening. The hour is set at 7:30 o'clock and, in case of rain, the musicians will move into the gym for the scheduled program. Senior band and orchestra pins will be awarded by Director Harry A. Summers in connection with the concert.

All seniors are asked to meet at the First Presbyterian church at ten o'clock Thursday morning for commencement rehearsal.

Dragons are promised for one o'clock Thursday afternoon, to be distributed in the following high school rooms: Sophomores 109, juniors 201 and seniors 208.

Commencement exercises will be held in First Presbyterian church at eight o'clock Thursday evening, when senior awards and diplomas will be presented.

Term marks will be given out at one o'clock Friday to pupils of all borough buildings, concluding the 1943-44 school calendar.

Patriotic Plea Wins Freedom For Kinzuait

A plea that he be given a chance to "help my boy in the army and to do my part to win the war" won for Charles E. Tuttle, 39, of Kinzuait, Pa., a revocation of a 30-day jail sentence in City Court this morning.

Tuttle pleaded guilty before Acting Judge Rollin A. Fancher to a charge of public intoxication and heard the judge pronounce the jail sentence. With tears in his voice, Tuttle pleaded with the court to give him a chance.

"I have a boy in the army," he declared, "and I want to help him win the war. I am a lathe operator in a local war plant working on government contracts. We are short of help and I want to do my part."

The judge changed the sentence to a $25 fine and Tuttle made arrangements to pay the fine $5 a week. Although pleading guilty to the charge, he told the court he had had only two beers and had been arrested during the blackout last night.

Aviation Cadet Recruiter To Be At Armory Thursday Night

In a recent issue of the Warren Times-Mirror, there appeared a full page advertisement of the Army Air Forces, advising that the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve would again accept recruits for the Army Air Forces from young men mentally and physically fit for service, who had attained the age of 17 years and who were not yet 18 years of age.

Civil Air Patrol has again been requested by the Army Air Forces, as an auxiliary of the Army Air Forces, to engage in this recruiting service. On Thursday night, June 8, at 7 o'clock P. M., Captain Steuermann, of the Aviation Cadet Board, of Erie, will be present at the National Guard Armory, on Hickory street, to interview any young men who are 17 years of age, and who are desirous of enlisting in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve. It is requested that all young men having an interest in becoming members of the Army Air Forces, on attending the age for induction, should come to the Armory Thursday evening and interview Captain Steuermann.

The Army Air Forces have further offered an educational program for all young men who are high school graduates, and who have not yet attained the age of seventeen years and nine months. High School graduates under eighteen years of age, who are not more than seventeen years and nine months, may upon enlistment in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve become eligible for Army Special Training in College for a term or terms up to the age of 18 years. Young men under the age of 18, who are still in High School, and who enlist in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve will not be called for service upon their 18th birthday until the termination of the semester of High School in which they may find themselves upon their 18th birthday.

This privilege to enlist in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve was closed in April, and only opened again on June 1st. All young men wishing to take advantage of this, should go to the Armory on Thursday night. It is not known how long this privilege will be extended to young men approaching draft age. Preliminary mental tests may be given to young men by officers of Civil Air Patrol by appointment with Lieutenant W. M. Stone, at 705-707 Warren Bank and Trust Company Building, at other times than the dates when Captain Steuermann regularly visits Warren.

Army Chaplain Resigns First Baptist Charge

Chaplain James A. Davidson, pastor of the First Baptist church on military leave of absence for the past year, has resigned that position, continuing as base chaplain at Bluetenthal Field, Wilmington, N. C.

In his letter to the congregation he states: "The national crisis, in which we now are, as I see it, will not allow us to return to civilian life for another year and a half at least, and it is quite possible that it will be longer. Our great church should be entirely free to throw all of its spiritual forces into a united, God-guided effort without the distracting influence of a pastor on leave, whose return is uncertain, and far-distant at best."

"I wish it were possible," writes Chaplain Davidson, "as we sever our official connections, to express just what we feel after a year's absence from the congregation. We deeply appreciated you while we were in your midst, but to study you at a distance has made it possible for us to evaluate your strength, your excellent leadership, your godly purpose and your unique place in a typical, progressive American city. If our country ever really becomes Christian it will be the result of the fervent work of our church and others like it."

"We feel toward you just what Paul felt when he said to the Philippians: 'I thank God for every remembrance of you! . . . being confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.'"

Because of the possibility that Chaplain Davidson may be ordered overseas, the family's home on Fifth avenue will be kept for immediate occupancy. Mrs. Davidson and their three boys will return to Warren for the duration in the event of his transfer to foreign service.

The letter of resignation, which was written to officials of the church on May 30, has not been brought before the congregation for final action but it is expected that it will be accepted at the next congregational business meeting.

Officer Too Talkative At Party Demoted

Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 7.—(P)—One of America's best known major generals was demoted to lieutenant colonel and sent home for indicating in advance the time of D-Day.

The supreme command allowed this information to be cabled abroad today after holding it up several weeks for security reasons.

The major general was one of the commanders in the American airforce, the announcement said. The conversation was said to have taken place almost two months ago when the invasion was expected almost daily. The general was reported to have said in the presence of several persons: "On my honor the invasion will take place before June 15."

His action was reported to security police by a woman guest and Gen. Eisenhower immediately ordered him reduced to the permanent rank of lieutenant colonel and sent home after an investigation.

His name was not given.

LUDLOW

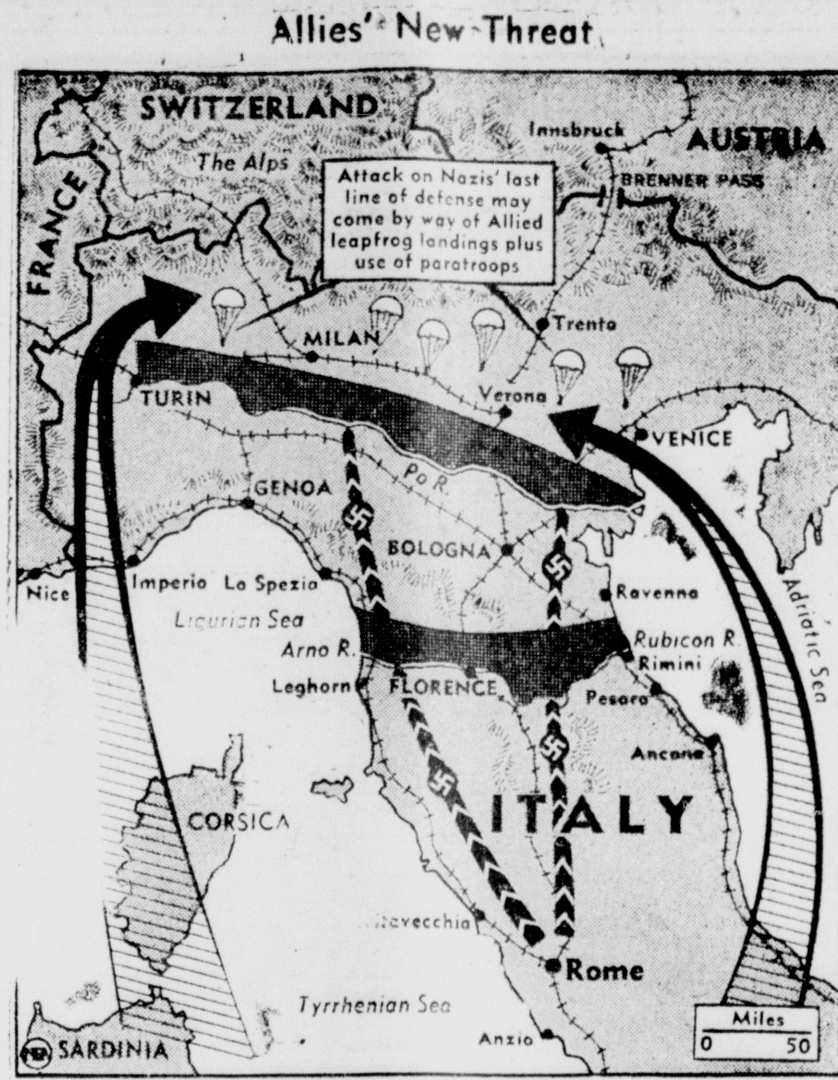

Ludlow, June 1.—The Luther League held its regular meeting on Thursday evening, the twenty-fifth, at the church parlors with Mrs. Wales Connelly, Joyce Wallin and Louise Nelson as hostesses. The meeting was opened by the president, Miss Edith Larson, who led in Scripture reading and prayer. During the business meeting, it was decided that the League will sponsor a Mid-summer Festival at the church and a Sunrise Service at the park during the summer. Mrs. Enoch Nelson presented three small children on the program who are piano pupils and Miss Evelyn Norlin presented two young vocal pupils of her class. The following program was given: Piano numbers by Kismet Connelly, Freddie Johnson and Marybelle Carr; song, Junior Choir; vocal numbers, Barbara Sadler, David Anderson and Miss Norlin of Sheffield.

The meeting closed with a hymn after which lunch was served. There were sixty-two in attendance.

The baccalaureate service for the Ludlow senior class of high school was held on Sunday evening at seven-thirty o'clock at the Moriah Lutheran church with the Reverend Wilbert Nylund of the Kane Mission church officiating. The Lutheran choir sang a selection suitable to the occasion.

Memorial Day services were conducted at the Ludlow cemetery with members of the James Huber American Legion Post in charge. Chaplain John G. Johnson opened the service, followed by a selection given by the Ludlow High School Band under the direction of Miss Mary Catherine Maxwell. A "Song of Peace" was given by the Lutheran choir under the direction of Mrs. Emil Nelson. Tribute to the dead was paid by Emil S. Nelson. The speaker for the day was the Reverend Robert E. Olson of Coatesville, who was introduced by L. B. Connelly. His subject contained thoughts of the past and presented three things which must be stressed if peace is to live—Love, Faith, Hope. The band played another number after which "Taps" was played by James Nelson. There were many in attendance from out of town.

Mrs. Correll showed pictures of Camp Birdal Eley which were much appreciated, especially so since there were Ludlow girls in the pictures. Mrs. Correll and Mrs. Koebly gave short talks. Ludlow has progressed in Girl Scouting a great deal and contains Brownies, Intermediates and Senior Girl

Scouts. Brownie leaders are Mrs. Leroy Johnson and Mrs. G. Johnson; Intermediate leaders are Miss Catherine Mary Bellucci and Miss Thelma Peiper; Senior leaders are Mrs. Walter Cox and Mrs. Melvin McCleary. General chairman is Mrs. L. B. Connelly; Intermediate and Senior troop committee chairman, Mrs. R. E. Wenstrau; Brownie chairman, Mrs. Wilbur Johnson. Grand Jury Recommends Office Rental

The Grand Jury at the June Term of Court ended its duties yesterday afternoon after its inspection of the Court House and County Jail and the Schimmelfeng property to the west of the Court House. It had been proposed that the Schimmelfeng property be purchased for office use. The Grand Jury reported that the Court House and Jail were in good shape except for some toilets in the jail which it recommended be replaced. Purchase of the Schimmelfeng property was not recommended but it was proposed that office space be rented until after the emergency.

In conversation with one of the county commissioners it was learned that the purchase of the Schimmelfeng property was proposed in an effort to relieve the crowded conditions at the Court House and to make room for the offices which under recent legislation at Harrisburg must be provided. These will be a chief assessor and a man to handle graves registration which will include the handling of veterans claims, etc. He also stated that the office of the Prothonotary, County Treasurer and Register and Recorder were also crowded and their vaults were too small.

He further stated that it was proposed to take the offices of the County Superintendent of Schools, Farm Bureau, Vocational offices and graves registrar out of the Court House which would afford ample room which is badly needed.

at the close of the meeting.

The Ludlow High auditorium was busy last week as the Junior Class sponsored a hop open to the public on Friday evening with Stacey Carter's music box as the background for rhythm. There (Turn to Page Five)

THIS IS IT!

Yesterday morning American boys, in full battle regalia, crouched behind the gunwhales of their landing craft, peered at the dim shores of Hitler's west wall and murmured, "This is it!"

Paratroopers, in their half boots and clutching weapons of destruction, stared at the open door of the transport plane and awaited the signal that would send them floating down behind the fabulous outer ring of Festung Europa. "This is it!"

In the channel the men who manned the naval guns that hurled death and destruction into the coastal batteries must have yelled into the din— "This is what we've waited for! This is it!"

Yes, this is it. The invasion for which we have waited two and a half years. This is it! The big show—the fight to the finish. This is the performance for which there has been long hours of grim dress rehearsal.

Make no mistake about it on the Home Front either. This is the War Loan that counts, too. This Fifth War Loan must finance the big attack. This is the War Loan Drive in which we individually must buy more bonds than ever before. This is it!

The previous drives were made to finance the equipment and the training of the army and navy—The Fifth War Loan puts every American by the side of a fighting man on European soil at last.

When the Victory Volunteer calls on you, put yourself beside one of these fighting men. Say to yourself, "This is it! No retreating! Every step forward! This is the big push!"

In your case, every step forward means another bond. How many steps will you take toward victory?

YMCA ANNIVERSARY

Chief event in the local observance of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Young Men's Christian Association movement by twelve men in a London bedroom June 6, 1844, took place last night when the "Second Century Day Dinner" was held in conjunction with 10,000 others being held throughout the world.

In this connection it is interesting to note that the local association was organized November 23, 1886, and incorporated August 10, 1891, with Francis Henry as its first president, and Frank B. Stevenson as the first general secretary. Many recall the old building on the site now occupied by the Masonic hall which was destroyed by fire October 12, 1911. During one week in May, 1912, $77,000 was raised for the present structure which was opened January 2, 1915, without indebtedness. E. I. Beshlin was chairman of the building committee and A. F. Kottcamp general secretary.

TIME TO CELEBRATE

With the Allies scoring initial successes in the greatest military operation in history Warren has an opportunity for a real celebration of the event in the Elk-sponsored Community Flag Day exercises next Wednesday evening.

The committee in charge has quite definite assurances that there will be six band organizations. All veteran's organizations will be represented. It now behooves every patriotic society and all groups engaged in war activities to arrange to turn out for the parade.

The committee extends an invitation to all organizations to participate. Assignments in the parade may be secured by contacting the editorial department of the Times-Mirror or Ben Kinnear at his department. Here's an opportunity for Warren to put over a bang-up D-Day-D-Day celebration that will go down in history.

Hitler's undoubtedly powerful Atlantic wall, behind which he has strutted and threatened, has been broken at one of its strongest points, according to today's dispatches. The landings which were begun on the Cherbourg peninsula of Normandy in Tuesday's stormy dawn are continued. Commander in Chief Eisenhower's headquarters tell that "satisfactory progress has been made."

It may be several days before a concerted Nazi counter-attack may be attempted with reserves brought up for a full scale assault.

The coast-line is thinly veiled and held by the Germans, Hitler's reservoir of reserves may be far back of the coastal defenses. Doubtless he has it strategically situated for quick movement in any direction.

For the moment, let's temper our enthusiasm with caution

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

SAN FRANCISCO — What this great state needs is "a guide to the voting laws of California and their effect on the state's politics." I have met several men here capable of writing such a tome. The only difficulty would be that after each election they would have to tear the thing up and start over again.

Since Sen. Hiram Johnson (then governor) in 1912 led a flock of Republicans and a generous sprinkling of Democrats in the parade that followed Teddy Roosevelt's "Bull Moose," California probably has had a greater floating or independent vote than any state in the nation.

The opportunity for this has been enhanced greatly by the peculiar voting laws which permit a man to file for office in both parties, and providing he wins both nominations (he must win his own party affiliate nomination to run in the general election at all) virtually step into office in the general election without opposition. Twelve of the state's 23 congressmen and one of its senators now hold their office by virtue of the support of both Democrats and Republicans.

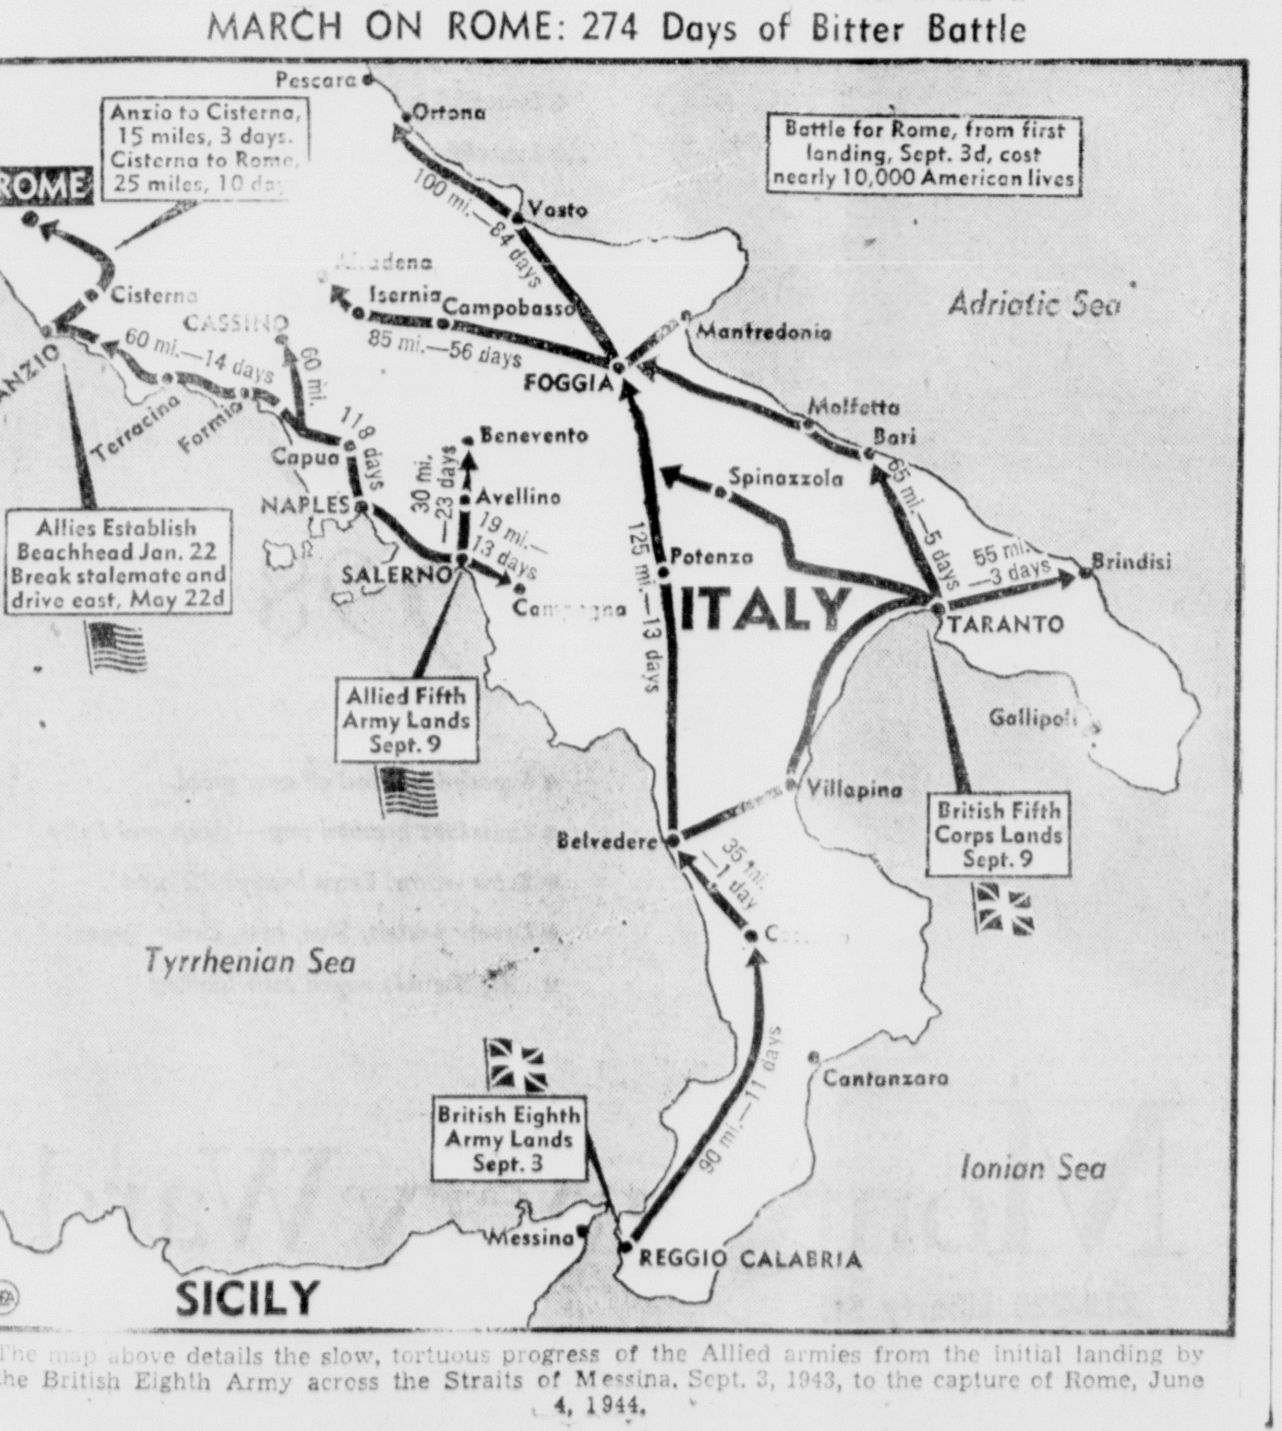

THIS peculiar situation has a tendency to break down party lines, to make a less important what badge a man wears. Election Day, it also gives the candidates far greater freedom than they have in other states in going beyond the bounds of their party in the search for voters. Of the voters a greater freedom in making their ballots for the man rather than for the party wheel horse.

This brings California closer to being a non-partisan state than any other in the union and makes its politics almost incomprehensible to the average voter.

having any money, they will spend ten days in the county jail.

The circus is here today and the small boys discovered that the NRA has its effect on Circus Day. In years past the small boys carrying water for the elephants was always a feature, but the NRA says that small boys cannot carry water, hence several of them will not get a chance to see the show.

Short, Stocky Man Sought In Sligo Robbery

Clarion, June 7.—(P)—State police today intensified their search for a short, stocky robber who yesterday held up the Sligo National Bank at Sligo and escaped with $5,000 in currency.

The stolen automobile in which the man fled was found abandoned last night at New Bethlehem, about 25 miles from Sligo.

Lt. J. R. Dodson of the state police at Punxsutawney, said the holdup man, after leaving New Bethlehem, hitch-hiked to Brookville, 28 miles away, and that thereafter trace of him was lost.

Police of Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia and New York state were on the alert for the man who got away with a bundle of $1, $5, $10 and $20 bills.

The robber, wearing dark glasses and a handkerchief across the lower part of his face, entered the bank around 9:45 a. m., and ordered two cashiers to turn over the cash. There were no customers in the bank at the time. Only a clerk was present with the cashiers.

Annual Report TO OUR NEIGHBORS IN WARREN

I Here is the record of Sylvania's operations in 1943. We want you, our neighbors — many of whom contributed to this achievement — to know the story

Our 1943 sales totaled $60,473,821 — an increase of 87 per cent over our previous record year of 1942 and nearly three times as great as our sales in 1941.

We estimate that 85 per cent of this production went directly or indirectly into the war effort. Radio and electron tubes are vital to military communications. Fluorescent and incandescent lighting equipment are indispensable to round-the-clock Victory production.

III Pay rolls, which affect the economy of this and other Sylvania plant cities, rose 82 per cent to a total of $23,247,803 in 1943.

IV In other words, 38 per cent of our income dollar was paid out in wages and salaries. Chart above shows the disposition of the Sylvania income dollar for the past five years.

V Wartime federal taxes totalled $5,529,700 — 11 per cent of 1943 income and the equivalent of $360 per employee.

An estimated saving of $3,133,000 on our government contracts has been effected through more efficient production in 1943. This voluntary refund to the government, which has been taken into account, is subject to final approval of contract renegotiation authorities.

Under a comprehensive program for planning, Sylvania is making studies of present, reconversion and postwar conditions to chart a course for the future. Forecasts indicate a continued expansion of fluorescent lighting, the early development of television and frequency modulation radio, and other electronic applications after the war. We are giving much importance to the financial position of the company in order that we may take advantage of the opportunities in these fields. Emphasis is also being placed on planning for the distribution of products we propose to manufacture.

Sylvania has made great strides in helping to win the war, and is determined to make this progress permanent in the peace to come.

Black Light Featured At Williams School Dance Recital

One of the most mystifying features of stage craft that has been used with great effect in recent years will be featured in the recital to be given by the pupils of the Williams School of Dancing June 28 in the Woman's Club. Black light was used first in the Earl Carroll Vanities several years ago and it scored an immense hit. By coating costumes, accessories, etc., on the people on the stage with a highly expensive paint, wonderful effects are secured when the black light is thrown upon them. A veritable transformation takes place and the costumes become a riot of gorgeous color and beauty.

One of the features of the program will be "An Indian Legend—The Wedding of the Winds", and in this hundreds of feathers in the headdresses and costumes have been coated with the pigments that come to life under the paint. The stage settings have also been treated and this feature promises to rank with anything professional ever seen in the city.

Mrs. Williams, who is producing the program, states that the costumes and effects used in this portion of the presentation are all owned by the studio and that an expense of over $250 has been involved in this production.

INVASION DAY SERVICE

The first notice to a number in town of the European invasion was the ringing of church bells at 8 a. m. In accordance with previous announcement a union prayer service was held at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday morning in the Methodist church. At that hour some of the stores were closed and from all over the town people assembled in the church for a prayer service. The Methodist pastor, Rev. Dwight Jack, presided assisted by Rev. C. M. McIntyre, pastor of the United Brethren church and Rev. Samuel Stimer, pastor of the Free Methodist church. Pirates and White Sox Are Champs In One-Run Games

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

If winning high, one-run games means a pennant—as the experts say—the second place Pittsburgh Pirates and the fourth place Chicago White Sox today are bound for the big league flags.

As the majors resumed operations after a two-day rest period caused jointly by the schedule makers and D-Day, a survey of the first quarter of the league races revealed that at 341 games played, roughly one-third, or 118, have been decided by a single score.

Frankie Frisch's Pirates have the best record of pulling those tight ones out of the fire, winning eight of 11 for a .727 percentage, far above the Cincinnati Reds who placed next by taking 10 of 18. Brooklyn and Chicago have won at least as many close ones as they've lost.

Strangely enough the St. Louis Cardinals have grabbed but four of nine close fits, but lead the league in four games, indicating they don't often make it close. The New York Giants have the poorest record, winning but six of 15.

Just as doping the American League race is strictly a job to do with a blindfold and a hat pin, separating the best "clutch" teams calls for a decimal point expert. The standings show only five and a half games between top and bottom.

The White Sox have the edge in one-run games by taking seven of 11, but Detroit with 10 of 16 is close behind. Cleveland has been hard pressed to get an even break in 12 starts. Washington has had the worst luck in the close ones, losing 10 of 15.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, June 7—(P)—Overseas sports roundup:

Europe.

D-Day interrupted the GI sports program in Britain, but it appears that the boys are putting their training to good use... as we make it, the quarterback called for a "formation quick-opener" against a weak spot in Hitler's Atlantic line, sending Paratroopers through to clean up the secondary... a sandlot grid fan compares the German army to a couple of cops trying to keep a crowd of small boys from climbing the fence at a high school game... one or two of the kids may be caught, but while the cops are watching one spot, most of the boys get in at some other place... and just to show what the soldiers think about when there's a lull in the fighting, Corp. Vince Murphy, with the 15th Air Force in Italy, recently wrote: "We are getting the baseball scores every night by short wave. We have a Yankee fan, a White Sox fan and a Red Sox fan in the house so you can imagine the discussions that go on here in an evening."

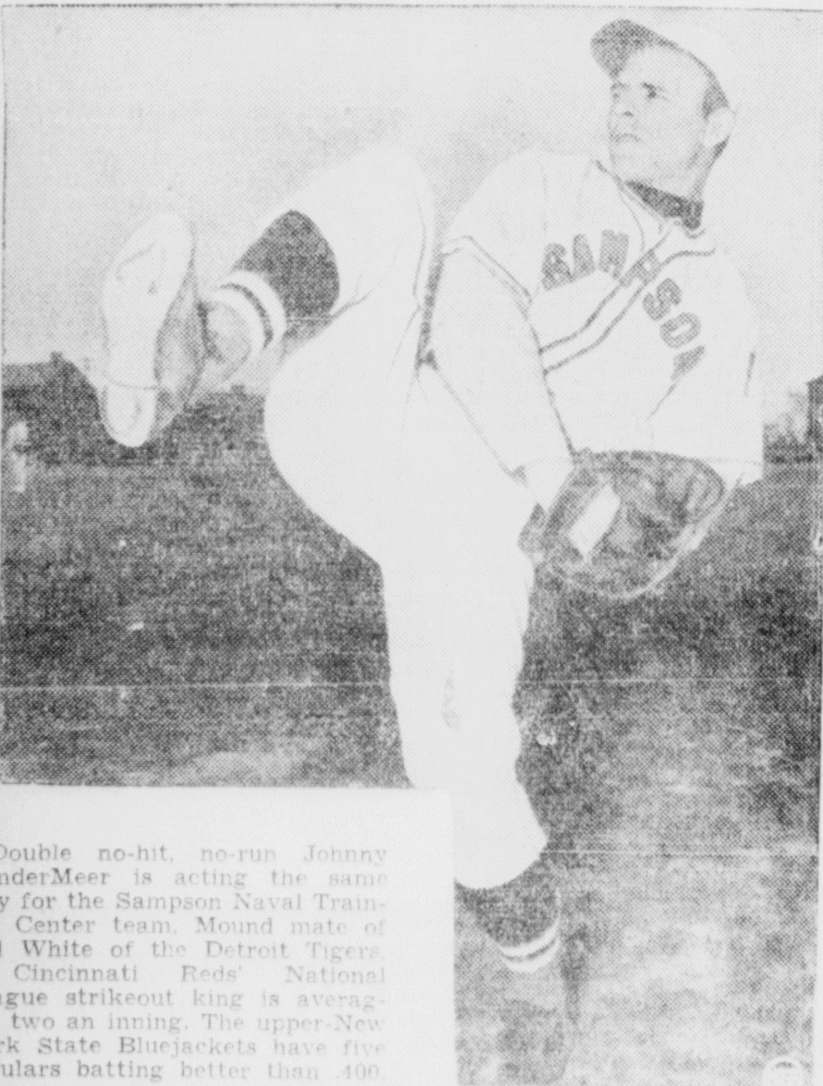

The Pacific.
T/Sgt. Billy Goodrich of the Marines, former Brooklyn sports scribe, bemoans the fact that the Dodgers don't draw the most applause from the aviation unit to which he is attached in the South Pacific although Billy maintains they're the most respected club.

Iceland.

Ever hear of a basketball season running into June?... It does in Iceland from where Lieut. Dave Zinkoff reports the army court champs of Greenland will have it out with Iceland's champions this month... Boxing still is going strong there, too, and Zink adds that GIs walked miles to jam the Red Cross hut when the first ring show was staged at Keflavik, Corp. Joe Sarvoidee of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and Pvt. Pat Kelly, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., were the outstanding performers... Just to show that Iceland isn't all ice, the softball season is well under way.

The Naval Air Transport Service's most famous cargo plane is the giant flying hot Mars which on one trip carried a record air load of 35,000 pounds.

PONY LEAGUE

Buffalo, N. Y., June 7—(P)—With a lineup as patched as grand-ma's quilt, the PONY League Hornell Pirates made their way to a 6-4 D-Day victory over Batavia.

Trenk, a pitcher, was at third base, and Hepler, a reserve catcher, in the outfield. When Jim Drake was injured in the fifth inning, Knight, a pitcher, was sent to rightfield with Hepler moving to left. Magula, an outfielder, was at shortstop.

The Jamestown Falcons, with Lefty Parkhurst on the mound, defeated Bradford, 5-0.

The second-place Erie Sailors pushed Olean deeper in the league cellar by defeating them 5-4. Wells-ville at Lockport postponed.

Tonight's games: Batavia at Hornell, Bradford at Jamestown, Erie at Olean, Wellsville at Lockport.

Williams Favored To Defeat Angott

Philadelphia, June 7—(P)—A one-day delay in their scheduled Shibe Park 10-rounder found Ike Williams a 2-1 favorite over Sammy Angott today despite the former lightweight champion's considerably greater ring experience and his probable weight edge of at least 10 pounds.

Promoter Herman Taylor postponed the bout from last night to tonight "in order to give all the people an opportunity to hear the president's address to the nation" and in compliance with a request by Pennsylvania Governor Edward Martin that D-Day be devoted to work and prayer.

Angott, hard-hitting Washington, Pa., veteran who acknowledged 23 years, weighed 138 3/4 yesterday to 135 for the 20-year-old Trenton, N. J. negro. The fighters were to weigh in again today.

RACE FANS BUY BONDS

New York, June 7—(P)—War bond sales during the 24-day Belmont Park race meeting which closed Saturday totaled $840,625, the War Finance Committee announced today. Bond purchasers were admitted free to the racing plant.

For a whipped cream substitute, take a cup of light cream or "top of the bottle," combine with one of the whip cream mixes on the market, set bowl in cracked ice and water and beat contents with an egg beater until stiff.

Is it ever wise to BORROW?

NO one should borrow unnecessarily, but there are times when a loan is the best solution to a money problem. Thousands of letters in our files tell of the many worthwhile things made possible by a Personal loan. If you need extra cash, perhaps a Personal loan would be to your advantage too.

Personal makes loans promptly and privately, without involving outsiders. Sensible monthly payments are arranged and the cost is surprisingly low. For example: $50 for 2 weeks costs less than 53¢. Getting a loan at Personal is as simple as opening a charge account. Come in, phone or write us today.

EXERCISES SUNDAY

Commencement exercises for the parochial school at St. Joseph's are scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Sunday, when diplomas and senior awards will be presented.

PLAY FOR ASSEMBLY

In a special assembly held this morning at Beatty school, Mrs. B. J. Messerly presented a group of girls from the Dramatic Club in a play, "The Lieutenant Pays His Respects." Taking part in the production were Joan Cameron, Barbara Bova, Teresa Fino, Betty Lauffenberger, Betsy Conway and Doris Danielson. A repeat performance was given at three this afternoon for those who did not see this morning's presentation.

Six band organizations are in prospect for the parade, which will mean that many divisions in the line.

Second Crisis Is

Developing Officials Say

(From Page One)

There has to be a lot of hard fighting.

From the tactical viewpoint it is one continuous push to expand the beachhead and broaden the local fronts into a single huge line of attacks, but strategically it shapes up somewhat differently in this way:

The Germans, as their name "west wall" implied, planned their defense from Holland to the bay of Biscay as a fixed defense. In this area they set up a belt of strong-point defenses—known on the Russian front as "hedgehogs"—running up to 25 to 40 miles deep.

To the "wall," because of its vast size, they were compelled to commit most, possibly almost all, of the 54 or more divisions they had available for the channel coast.

According to their own pre-invasion broadcasts they held back a few, highly mobile Panzer divisions to counter-attack wherever the Allied spearheads appeared most threatening.

This system of defense depends for its success either on stopping the attack literally on the beaches, which is what the Germans tried to do most of yesterday, or on trapping the spearheads in the defense belt to prevent any major breakthrough.

Then the armored reserves counter-attack when the main thrust becomes apparent. This counter-attack is the second crisis.

Warren Boy Aboard Lost Escort Ship

Announcement in these columns last evening, through an Associated Press dispatch from Washington, that the navy has acknowledged loss of the escort carrier Black Island has resulted in many inquiries concerning Robert J. Mathis, 19 year old son of Louis Mathis, 100 Jefferson street, turret gunner assigned to the carrier.

Mr. Mathis has had no official word from the government concerning his son and believes that he is safe or some such communication would have been received by this time.

Young Mathis, first class petty officer, attended local schools and has been in service a year and seven months. He trained at Newport, R. I., and Memphis, Tenn., and shipped out on the Black Island from Norfolk more than a year ago.

His father has had no direct word from him since a letter came which was written at sea late in March or early in April and received early in May.

TIMES TOPICS

FINAL MEETING
Principals of the various borough school buildings held their final meeting of the term on Tuesday afternoon in the office of Superintendent John G. Rossman.

CAR STOLEN

WILL MEET THURSDAY
Members of the V. F. W. are urged to note that the regular meeting of the group will be held tomorrow evening (Thursday) at 8 o'clock.

GAME AT HOSPITAL
A good game is anticipated at the State Hospital diamond Thursday evening when "Red" Swanson's Struthers-Wells team will meet the fast Hope Window Glass outfit from Jamestown.

FULL LIEUTENANT
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kellerman, of Youngville, have had word from their son, 2nd Lt. Elmer N. Kellerman, that he has been promoted to the rank of first lieutenant. Lt. Kellerman, currently located at Shreveport, La., was formerly employed here by the Bell Telephone Company.

NOTICES ARE POSTED
Notices have been posted by the police department outlining the law relative to the dog quarantine which is in effect in the borough. Police call the attention of dog owners to the fact that the quarantine is being strictly enforced and that dogs running loose will be picked up. Last month 45 dogs were disposed of by the police.

CONBOY SENDS CARD
Gerald Conboy, formerly one of the police officers of the borough has sent a card to the members of the police department.
